

$1200.00 IN GOLD

Commission and Valuable Prizes Given Away

General Information

The campaign officially opens Wednesday, Jan. 22, and closes Saturday, March 15, 1913, at 7 o'clock p. m.

The campaign is open to every man and woman (married or single, old or young) in the entire state of Oregon.

This is not a beauty or popular girl contest, but a strictly competitive plan where effort and perseverance will count.

The Grand Capital Prize—Five hundred dollars in gold—will be awarded the candidate who secures the largest number of votes in the entire campaign, regardless of where he or she resides.

Those who desire to compete for one of the prizes should not wait for some one else to nominate them, but send in their own names as contestants.

The winners of the prizes will be awarded by their accredited votes. Votes are secured by prepaid subscriptions to the DAILY AND WEEKLY COURIER.

Votes will be allowed on subscriptions anywhere in the wide, wide world. Candidates are not confined to their town or own locality to secure subscriptions.

Subscription books will be sent free to all candidates, and upon their friends' request. It costs absolutely nothing to try for a prize.

Any candidate who works to the close of the campaign and does not receive one of the six prizes will be paid 10 per cent commission on all subscription money he turns in.

EVERY ONE WINS.

Rules Govern- ing Campaign

Any person except employes of the Courier or members of their families may take part.

Each candidate must be nominated on a blank printed in the Daily Courier, which counts for 10,000 votes.

But one nomination blank will be counted for each candidate.

Contestants are not restricted as to the territory in which they may work and secure votes.

No candidate can transfer votes after turning them into the campaign manager and receiving credit for them.

The Campaign Manager shall decide all questions and his decision shall remain final.

All votes, subscriptions and remittances must be turned into the office of the contest manager or they will not be counted.

Payments must accompany each subscription or the votes will not be counted.

Subscription will not be received from any one person for more than five years in advance.

No telephone subscriptions or promises will be considered.

No contestant can win more than one prize.

In case of a tie between any two of the contestants, the value of the prize they are tied for and the next one below will be divided between them.

The contest will be closed and the votes counted by three local business men to be selected by the candidates.

After a candidate has entered the campaign The Courier will furnish him with a list of Daily and Weekly subscriptions and of those who should subscribe.

The management of the Courier reserves the right to add to these rules.
