A Palmer left Monday for an extended visit with relatives in Pomona, Cal. W. H. Miller, of the firm of Lanco & Co., of Gold Hill, was in the city on business Monday. Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Milner, of Portland, arrived in the city Tuesday for a visit of several days with relatives. Rev. W. F. Gloeckner left Tuesday morning for the Galice country to look after his work as traveling evangelist for the Presbyterian Church. H. J. Clark returned Tuesday afternoon from Yoncalla and Albany, where he went last week to look after some building contracts. C. V. Ellis returned Tuesday afternoon, arrived in Grants Pass Tuesday and will spend the summer visiting with their friends, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Druse. R. M. Logan, of Long Beach, California, arrived in Grants Pass, Monday for a visit with old acquaintances, in old time scenes. Mr. Logan was formerly a resident of Kerby and one of the pioneers of this county. He will be well remembered by many of our older citizens. Mrs. Geo. Metcalf, who had been in very poor health during the past year, passed away Monday at her home in this city. The funeral services were held at the residence Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock, Rev. W. R. Jeffrey of Newman M. E. Church, officiating. The body was interred at the Odd Fellows cemetery. Deceased was born in Ohio, and had resided here with her husband but a few years. Mrs. C. C. Page arrived in the city from San Francisco Monday evening and will spend the summer on her ranch a few miles out from Grants Pass. Mrs. Page is one of the investors who is charmed with the Rogue River valley as a place of residence. She will have a companion for the summer Mrs. R. M. Reece, of Portland, who arrived Tuesday morning. Mr. Paddock Makes Donation— Mr. Paddock has offered his building on South Sixth street to the Ladies' Auxiliary both for their Rose Festival exhibit and also the "Oregon product" cafeteria style dinner which takes place early in June. To Oil South Sixth Street The city engineer and council are figuring on the plan of oiling the macadam on South Sixth street, and it is likely that the work will be done in the near future. Open Public Dumping Grounds— The city council has concluded to re-open the public garbage dumping ground located in the west part of town to use again, and will put a competent man in charge to burn up such part of the refuse that comes that can be destroyed in that way. Physicians Here Next Week— The physicians of Grants Pass are now preparing to entertain the Southern Oregon Medical association, which is to hold an all-day session here on Tuesday, May 13, with a free lecture under the auspices of the Ladies Auxiliary, in the Commercial club rooms, in the evening. New Autos Arrive— Among those who are enjoying the delightful climate and the fine Josephine county roads from the decks of new automobiles this week are R. C. Coe, who has purchased an R. C. H. and Banker Baker, who has replaced his old car with a modern gray Buick. Northern Visitors Here— Mr. and Mrs. Melvin McKim, of Foam Lake, Saskatchewan, have arrived in the city for a visit of a few days. Mr. McKim is a nephew of Isaac Best, with whom the couple are stopping. He states that his section of the country is in a prosperous condition, as it is producing some of the finest wheat on the continent, as well as other grains. He admits that the Rogue River valley is a most beautiful place in which to live, and he is especially impressed with the climate. Ashland Visitor Imbibes— Ashland is "dry," but that does not mean that a citizen of Ashland can not moisten his palate with good old corn juice when he comes over to Grants Pass. A. McDonald, who registered Ashland as his home port, took aboard a few fingers too much Monday, and landed in the municipal lodging house with Chief McLane as his landlord. When duly sober, the visitor from the Siskiyou foothills paid $5 room rent to Police Judge Cressler, and returned to the drouth at Ashland.

Capt. Thompson Goes to Redding— Capt. C. Henry Thompson, who has been investigating the mineral resources of this section for some weeks, departed Tuesday morning for Redding and other points in northern California where his company has extensive mining interests. He will return here later and probably undertake some large prospecting work, especially in the copper belt. Lower Rogue River Miner Here— F. C. Hammond, who has been operating a quartz mine at Blossom Bar, on the lower Rogue, was in the city Tuesday afternoon enroute to Medford in company with his daughter, Helen. While here he was the guest of C. L. Hobart, the two having been old friends in Alaska, where Mr. Hammond was an active mining man. He states that they have a fine property down the river, on which they have installed a big cyanide plant. SOPHOMORES IN DEBATE WIN TURNER TROPHY. The Turner cup, offered by Superintendent Turner to the winner of the series of the inter-class debates at the high school, passed into the possession of the team from the Sophomore class Friday afternoon when it defeated the team representing the seniors. The question debated was "Resolved, that the coastwise trading vessels of the United States should pay toll for passage through the Panama canal." The sophomores maintained the negative, and the decision of the Judges was unanimous in their favor. The sophomore team was composed of Gladys Swacker, Edith Sweeney and Cedric Marshall, the debaters for the seniors being Ruth Bradford, Robt. Harryman and Edward Thomas. The Judges were Mrs. Arthur Conkling, Attorney O. S. Blanchard and Judge H. H. Basler. EUGENE PUBLICITY MAN VISITS GRANTS PASS. Morris J. Duryea, publicity agent of the Eugene Commercial club, was in the city Saturday in the interests of the State University, his especial mission being to tell the people why the appropriations made by the last session of the legislature should not be held up indefinitely through the referendum, and to warn the friends of the institution to be on their guard against this attack of the enemies of the college. Mr. Duryea said that the great school at Eugene was progressing most rapidly, and that about the only encouragement the opponents of the university were getting in their effort to referend the appropriations came from a few people in Portland. He found no adverse sentiment in Josephine county, the university having many friends here. GRANTS PASS MEN IN INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE. In view of the great International Christian Citizenship conference, to be held in Portland from June 29 to July 6, a meeting of local committeemen has been called for Tuesday evening in the parlors of Newman M. E. church, for the purpose of arousing interest and organizing this community for the work for which the conference stands. The following citizens have been requested by Secretary James McGau, of Portland, to serve as local committeemen: Arthur Conkling, H. L. Gilkey, Theo. P. Cramer, M. Childs, Mrs. L. L. Jewell, Mrs. M. C. Findley, R. F. Hackett, James Hack. This conference promises to be one of the greatest meetings ever called together, and its aims and objects are of world-wide interest. About seventy-five speakers of national and international reputation in religious, educational and professional lines, are expected to fill up the week's program. A glance over the list of speakers and their topics shows a program of great strength and interest. In the program as mapped out will be found all the great sociological, economic and reform problems now confronting the world, and they will be dealt with by men who know whereof they speak. Rev. Wm. R. Jeffrey, of Newman church, has been appointed by the executive committee of the conference as a delegate from this place. The conference is not only international but inter-denominational. It is too big to belong to any one church, and too broad to be confined to any one class. Its scope is cosmopolitan and its work should enlist the sympathy of every good citizen.

MEMBERS OF MAZAMA CLUB TALKS OF MINES. Henry M. Parks, director of the Oregon Bureau of Mines and Geology, was in the city Friday meeting the mining people and investigating conditions generally in the mining districts of southern Oregon. The bureau, which was created by act of the last legislature, organized at Portland last week, and prepared for an aggressive campaign along the line of its work. In June a party will be put into the field in southern Oregon, as there will also in the other mining districts of the state, to make a comprehensive geological survey of each of the separate regions. There has never yet been a survey of the mineral resources by authority of the state, and there is no data available for interested parties regarding ore deposits in the state. The bureau proposes to make this survey complete, and to publish its report so that it will be available for all who wish it. Mr. Parks is a member of the Mazama organization, and stated that he was coming to Grants Pass to make the trip to the Marble caves on May 30th. He said that there was great interest in that excursion throughout the country, and that the party coming would be a large one. Most Prompt an Effectual Cure for Bad Colds. When you have a bad cold you want a remedy that will not only give relief, but effect a prompt and permanent cure, a remedy that is pleasant to take, a remedy that contains nothing injurious, Chamberlain's Cough Remedy meets all these requirements. It acts on nature's plan, relieves the lungs, aids expectoration, opens the secretions and restores the system to a healthy condition. This remedy has a world wide sale and use, and can always be depended upon. Sold by all dealers.

LOCAL MOVIES TO BE SHOWN IN NEAR FUTURE. President Kroh of the Commercial club has been notified by John M. Scott, general passenger agent of the Southern Pacific railway company, that the films of the moving pictures taken in this city last fall will be sent to the club for exhibition within a short time, as they are now being put in shape to send east to be used in the series of lectures which the company gives on the resources of the state. These pictures were taken by the official photographer of the railroad company last September and include films showing scenes in the orchards, on chicken ranches, and various other local subjects, one of the best films being that of the parade on the day of the Tokay grape festival. Deafness Cannot Be Cured. by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free. F. J. CHENEY & CO, Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

Weather Signs. There are a great many signs which are well known to the so called weather prophets, and if you live in the country you may amuse yourself by verifying some of them. Here are a few of the old reliables for signs of rain: Ants become very lively and seem to be in a hurry about something. Roosters are always flapping their wings and hens seem restless. Dogs and cats do not look as lively as usual and prefer to lie around the house, keeping near the fire. Flies come indoors and seem to be unusually sticky and troublesome. The cattle like to get into corners and usually stand with their tails toward the wind. The mantles on the gas jets are not as bright as usual. Swallows and other birds that feed on the wing fly very low. Hurt No Living Thing. Our food and garments are largely secured at the cost of great cruelty to beautiful and harmless animals and birds. But even if they are not beautiful or not harmless we should not cause unnecessary suffering to any living thing. Those creatures which must be destroyed should be killed quickly and with as little pain or fright as possible—not only for their own sakes, but that we ourselves may grow into the goodness and greatness which feel for everything that lives. In different parts of the world are many people who have found that they can be warmly and handsomely clothed without wearing the fur of animals; that there are plenty of ornaments so that no birds or any part of them need be worn—neither feathers, wings nor plumes.—Our Dumb Animals. How Do You Laugh? It is a well known and easily demonstrated scientific fact that different people sound different vowels when laughing, from which fact a close observer has drawn the following conclusions: People who laugh in A (pronounced as ah) are frank, honest and fond of noise and excitement, though they are often of a versatile and flexible disposition. Laughter in E (pronounced as ay) is peculiar to phlegmatic and melancholy persons. Those who laugh in I (pronounced as ee) are children or simple minded, obliging, affectionate, timid and undecided people. To laugh in O indicates generosity and daring. Avoid if possible those who laugh in U, as they are wholly devoid of principle. For Girls on Rainy Days. To make your rainy day bright do the following: Gather all your paper dolls together. Bring out your fairy tale book and choose your favorite story. After this has been done write a short play on that story and have your dolls as the characters. It is lots of fun to draw their costumes and rehearse the paper dolls for them. A Pertinent Query. The old gentleman looked Perley in the eye. "Can you support my daughter in the style to which she is accustomed?" he demanded. "No, colonel, I can't," replied Perley, "but let me ask you, sir, could you have done so at my age?"—Harper's Weekly. Disagreeable Advice. "I asked him how he got rich, and he told me, but I shan't follow his advice." "Why not?" "I don't like his methods." "Dishonest?" "Not at all. He said he simply saved his money instead of spending it for everything he thought he wanted."—Detroit Free Press. In Russia. "What is the matter?" demanded the grand duke. "Excellency, your cook demands a vacation." "Give her a knouting," was the autocratic command.—Kansas City Journal. Legal blanks at the Courier.
