CENTRAL POINT BALL

TEAM HERE SUNDAY.

The next game in the Rogue River Valley Baseball league will be played in Grants Pass next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock when the indomitable "Curly" Wilson brings his all-conquering Central Point Tigers here for the first contest between these two clubs this season.

The scrappy ex-Jacksonville catcher-manager has formed a splendid club in the city that is such a thorn in Medford's side, and has lost only one game this season. Wilson will do his own catching, with McIntyre pitching.

Roper is working hard to rebuild his club to the great calibre it possessed when Williams, Baker, Guy Smith, Osborn and Weckler were on its roster and to that end will have three new faces in Sunday's lineup.

In Sunday's game Roper will start his new twirler, Wade, secured from the Baker club of the Tri-State league and will have Frye and D. Osborn to fall back on.

CHICAGO FROM HOT TO COLD IN 24 HOURS.

Chicago, June 7.—Chicago weather, proverbial for inconsistency, did a flip-flop here within the last 24 hours which is a near-record. Yesterday the thermometer climbed to 91 degrees above and the city sweated. Today it is 45 degrees above and the citizens froze. In the suburb of Austin snow fell for 10 minutes this morning. On the lake a driving gale today is forcing tugs and fishing boats to scurry to harbor. Four men were rescued today from a gasoline launch in which they had been buffeted all night.

The Courier will give $5 reward for the arrest and conviction of any person for stealing the Daily Couriers delivered by carrier.

WIRE BRIEFS.

Eugene, June 12.—Max Sommer, a freshman at the University of Oregon, must have corrugations in his gray matter not unlike a sheet iron roof. Library records show that he pursued 89 volumes of highbrow literature during the school's term.

San Rafael, Cal., June 12.—Bill Bray escaped from the poor farm in a torn night shirt. He spent 24 hours chasing cows, whose tails he believed snakes. Delirium tremens. Bed and heavy straps for Bill.

San Francisco, June 12.—Five years ago Charles Tabor resigned as a United Railroads conductor, but he kept his "punch" and several thousand transfers. He was arrested. "Haven't paid a cent carfare in five years," admitted Tabor.

Los Angeles, June 12.—Twenty-five dollars was the price paid by a wrecking concern for valuable antique furniture stored in a vacant house by W. Bradner Lee. Lee arrived just in time to see the last load leaving. A Kennedy, fake owner, was arrested.

Covina, Cal., June 12.—"I'm going crazy; don't you want to come along?" asked Arthur H. Eaton, 42, of Constable Saunders, waking the officer at midnight. Eaton had been kicked on the head by a mule and feared for his reason. He swore to his own complaint.

DISCHARGED FROM PRISON TO FACE MURDER TRIAL.

Leavenworth, Kas., June 12.—Frank Gordon, whose correct name is Walter Barnes, was arrested here today as he emerged from prison after a three years' sentence and will be taken to Chicago to stand trial for the murder of his wife and her sister, when they refused to give money. Before Barnes' imprisonment he was prominent in vaudeville. He was captured in Oklahoma after the alleged murders, but was sent to Leavenworth for forgery, evidence of the alleged murders not then being available.
