WARNING FOR STOCKMEN IN DROUGHT AFFECTED STATES

Manhattan, Kansas, Sept. 29.—Farmers contemplating pasturing stalk fields and feeding shock fodder this fall should be extremely careful, according to veterinary authorities here. Dr. D. F. Luckey, Missouri state veterinarian, today issued the warning as affecting Kansas as well as his own state. According to veterinarians when the growth of the corn is stunted by drought such as was experienced here recently, there develops in the stock a poison resembling prussic acid. Apparently it is volatile and has evaporated from the stock by January. For that reason farmers are being warned that the corn in the shock be allowed to dry thoroughly before being fed to live stock and that the cattle not be turned into pastures where there are corn stocks until after the first of next year.

San Diego, Cal., Sept. 29.—Phil H. Tyler, representing a Los Angeles corporation in the San Diego territory, was one of the last persons to see Mrs. Rebecca Gay before she was killed in her office in a Los Angeles skyscraper some time Friday afternoon. "I was in the building to see Judge Works," said Tyler today, "and I met Mrs. Gay in the hall in front of her office. This was about one o'clock. I did not notice anything unusual about her appearance or manner. She seemed in her usual good spirits."

John Gay of San Diego, the millionaire, former husband of the murdered woman, objects strenuously to having his name dragged into the case, declaring that Rebecca Gay, who left him 20 years ago, had passed out of his life and that she was no more to him than anyone else. Gay is now at Lakeside endeavoring to recover his health.

In court with the defendant were his wife and several relatives. When sentence was pronounced Mrs. Platt collapsed completely and had to be carried from the court room.

PREVOST WINS JAMES GORDON BENNETT TROPHY.

Rheims, France, Sept. 29.—Aviator Maurice Prevost won the race for the James Gordon Bennett trophy today. He averaged 125 miles an hour, breaking all records.

As a result of the French manufacturers' boycott of the race, the prospective English, German and Italian contestants followed Weymann's example in withdrawing, leaving Crombez, a Belgian, as the only participant except the French DePerdussin flyers. DePerdussin was the only machine flown. The trouble was due to the fact that M. DePerdussin, a "Frenzied Financier," who has confessed to frauds amounting to millions, was represented in the race by six machines, was the donor of the aerodrome here and was generally too closely identified with the contest to be pleasant.

DR. WALLACE DIES AFTER HEROIC OPERATION

The hospital attendants denied, however, that she and Manuel are estranged.

TARIFF BILL READY FOR PRESIDENT'S SIGNATURE

Washington, Sept. 29.—The compromise report of the democratic house and senate conferees on the tariff bill was presented to the republican conferees this morning. It is scheduled for submission in the house this afternoon and will come up for adoption tomorrow. It probably will be adopted by the senate Thursday.

Democratic leaders say President Wilson will sign the bill Thursday night. The only possibility of delay is for the republicans to make final speeches in favor of protection.

The house is expected to adopt the Wilson-Smith-Lever substitute for the cotton futures tax amendment. It was believed, however, that the senate would refuse to adopt the substitute and that the entire cotton futures section would be eliminated from the bill.

President Wilson said the senate and house leaders regarded the cotton taxing amendment as foreign to the tariff bill, and declared they were willing to adopt the Wilson-Smith-Lever as a separate measure. The house rates on photographic and surveying instruments, opera glasses and similar instruments are reduced. Cement, asphalt, limestone, pig iron, scrap iron and ferromanganese are put on the free list. The rates on steel products also are reduced. The rates on fancy weaved and novelty cotton cloths are reduced slightly and the rate on cotton yarns increased. The duty on lace curtains also was increased. The wool rates generally were lowered, including those on flannels, blankets and cheaper grades of stockings. The duties on the higher priced stockings were increased.

The decreased wool schedules become effective Jan. 1 and free raw wool becomes effective Dec. 1.

Duties on silk ribbons, bands and narrow fabrics are increased from 40 to 45 per cent. Other important additions to the free list follow:

Fur skins, gun powder, harness, sugar-making machinery, school textbooks and unused moving picture films.

The principal change in the income tax increases the taxes on incomes of more than $75,000, and taxes all incomes of $3,000, except married men, who are not taxed unless their incomes are $4,000 or more.

The conferees agreed to the conference report on the tariff bill by a strict party vote, none of the minority members signing it.

The aged man declares in his petition that he "has up to the present time never been ill or sickly in his life."
