WILL DROP CASE AGAINST MRS. RAND

ASK EMPLOYER TO MAKE SURE SHE WAS "REAL DEAD"

Dublin, Oct. 30.—That the case against Mrs. Lucile Rand, daughter of ex-Governor Gage of California, charged with kidnaping, will be dropped November 29, when it is scheduled to come up again in the Kingston police court, was practically admitted today. Mrs. Rand was interested in finding homes for the children of striking Dublin transport workers and it was said that the charge against her developed from the fear, on certain persons part, that the plans she had made for two boys of 14 would interfere with their religious training.

San Francisco, Oct. 28.—Leaving a note to her employer asking that he see that she was "real dead" before her body was buried, Miss Nancy Anderson, aged 22 years, a tailoress, committed suicide in her room here today by gas asphyxiation.
