Mr. Germond was severely injured by being struck on the head by a falling tree early in November, his scalp being badly torn and the skull fractured, but he has now about fully recovered his health and will return to his home on the west fork of the Illinois. Program by Dixie School— The Dixie school began the holiday festivities last Thursday evening by giving one of the best and most entertaining programs that has ever been given in the district. Quite a large crowd was in attendance. The program consisted of recitations, readings and music. One of the special numbers was a song by Master Gilbert Peterson, entitled "My Dream," which was received with much applause. Mrs. Watson of Dixie assisted in the music. New Year Football Game— A football game between a team composed of ex-high school players of Grants Pass and an alumnae team from Medford is being arranged for New Year's day to be played here. The game will probably be put on under the auspices of the Commercial Club, the board of trustees regarding the proposition most favorably. It is probable that a previous contest will be played at Medford during the holidays, Christmas being the most likely date. A New Year's Day game has always proved a great attraction in Grants Pass, and with the Commercial Club taking up the matter a record breaking crowd may be expected.

GRANTS PASS DRUGGIST HAS VALUABLE AGENCY

The National Drug Co. has the Grants Pass agency for the simple mixture of buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., known as Adler-I-ka, the remedy which became famous by curing appendicitis. This simple remedy has powerful action and drains such surprising amounts of old matter from the body that JUST ONE DOSE relieves sour stomach, gas on the stomach and constipation almost IMMEDIATELY. The QUICK action of Adler-I-ka is astonishing.

Oregon Agricultural College Farmers' Week

December 8 to 13, 1913. This will be a notable event in the educational history of Oregon. "Farmers' Co-operation" will be the leading topic of a stimulating series of lectures. The week will be crowded with discussions and demonstrations in everything that makes for the welfare of the farmer and home-maker.

Winter Short Course

January 5 to 30, 1914. The college has spared no effort to make this the most complete short course in its history. A very wide range of courses will be offered in General Agriculture, Horticulture, Animal Husbandry, Dairying, Poultry Keeping, Mechanic Arts, Domestic Science and Art, Commerce, Forestry, and Music. Numerous lectures and discussions on Farmers' Co-operation, at home and abroad, will be a leading feature. Make this a pleasant and profitable winter outing. No tuition. Accommodations reasonable. Reduced rates on all railroads. For further information address H. M. TENNANT, Registrar, Corvallis, Oregon. Farmers' Business Courses by Correspondence without tuition.

BISHOP SCADDING PREACHED HERE SUNDAY

Bishop Scadding was a guest over Sunday in this city and addressed the St. Luke's Sunday school at 10 in the morning, and celebrated the Holy Communion and preached at the morning service. In the afternoon he held a conference with the vestry and church members, with a view to finding out what the congregation was able and willing to give towards the support of a resident vicar. His morning sermon was on the "Christian Ministry." The bishop also described the meeting of the general convention of the Episcopal Church which has just closed its session in New York; the meetings of the Woman's Auxiliary, and its triennial offering for missions of $300,000, of which the women of Oregon had given $1,000; the mass meetings on social service, and the legislative work of the House of Bishops, and of the House of Clerical and Lay Deputies. The afternoon meeting was of the nature of a family gathering, at which the bishop explained the policy of the Episcopal Church in Oregon, and the plan of the Board of Church Extension. Bishop Scadding expressed his great interest in Grants Pass and St. Luke's church, appreciated the good work done by Rev. Bartlett and Rev. W. B. Hamilton and the loyal laymen and women. The Rev. W. B. Hamilton is still in charge as vicar and will continue to give one service a week and respond to all sick calls, funerals, etc., until a resident vicar is appointed. The bishop had recently offered the mission to two clergymen, but both had declined. The bishop and vestry have now under consideration the names of two strong and well recommended clergymen, one of whom, it is hoped, will accept at an early date. There was a good attendance of the members at this meeting, and several made earnest speeches regarding the present status of the Episcopal Church, and the need of a resident vicar. Bishop Scadding will return to Grants Pass for Sunday, January 11, by which time it is hoped the local problem will be met.

Move Mill to Murphy District

Mr. Everton, of the Everton saw mill on lower Rogue River, was in town Saturday. Mr. Everton has bought a tract of saw timber south of Murphy and will move his mill from its present location to the Murphy district this winter.

Dr. Clement Associated With Dr. Findley

Dr. L. O. Clement and family arrived yesterday from Portland to make Grants Pass their home. Dr. Clement, who is an eye, ear, nose and throat specialist and who will be associated with Dr. Findley, is a graduate of the academic and medical departments of the University of Minnesota, from which he received the degrees of B. S. and M. D., and has taken post-graduate work in eye, ear, nose and throat in Boston and New York. He also has spent a year in the study of his specialty in London and Vienna. Before taking up the special work Dr. Clement was in active general practice for eight years. Since coming to Portland he has been appointed instructor in eye, ear, nose and throat in the medical department of the University of Oregon and has done much practical work in the clinical department. Dr. Findley, with his son Bayard, will leave on Tuesday morning for a vacation of ten days in Klamath county. On Dr. Findley's return January 1st, he and Dr. Clement will arrange office hours so that patients will be seen on appointment and waiting may be avoided.
