

Locals

Mrs. Warren Tuttle of Selma has been confined to bed the past week with bronchitis.

Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Hearing of O'Brien were transacting business in Grants Pass last Monday.

Mrs. Monroe North and daughter Sarah of the Stallcup place have been ill the past week with severe colds.

T. Nauke of Kerby is confined in the county hospital and last reports were that he is getting along nicely.

Archie Roberts of Takilma was struck by a falling tree recently. It is reported he is slowly recovering from the injury.

Miss Lois Dix of the Rocky Dale School is recovering from a back injury received in an auto accident before the holidays.

F. W. Cooper plans to attend the Seventh Day Adventist convention that will be held in Grants Pass next Saturday.

George Lillis will leave next Sunday for Waterloo, Iowa, where he will visit relatives and plans to make his future home there.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. A. Y. Arnold a baby boy, January 18th, at 3:15 p. m. at the Grants Pass hospital. Mother and baby doing fine.

Bruce Robinson drove L. E. Bidache to Fortuna, California on Wednesday to visit his son Victor and wife and incidentally to meet his new grand daughter Sonja Adele Bidache.

Jack McCracken and J. A. Buckles of Selma returned from a business trip to Salem where they had undergone examinations before the State Industrial Accident Commission.

Mr. H. C. Johnson with his son Carroll and daughter Mona of Portland spent the week end with Dr. and Mrs. A. N. Collman of Cave City. Mr. Johnson is the father of Mrs. Collman.

Mrs. A. L. Mallery was a Cave Junction visitor last week and also to spend a short time with her husband A. L. Mallery who is supervisor in the CCC camp. Mrs. Mallery edits the Oakland Tribune at Oakland, Oregon.

Miss Nola Welch, demonstration agent for Josephine county will meet the Illinois Valley Ladies on Wednesday, January 26th at the home of Mrs. Harry Smith. Pot luncheon will be served. Every home maker is expected to attend.

Roy Wilson lost his auto by fire last Tuesday afternoon. He was out in the woods working when he happened to return around and saw the top of his car on fire. Before he could reach the car the entire body was ablaze and nothing was left except the metal work. Mr. Wilson thinks the fire was started by a short circuit of the light in the roof of the car. Claude Tucker and Johnny Dietcher towed his car back to his home.

H. T. Burgman of the Ray Colbert farm on the Waldo road was a visitor at the News office last Tuesday. Mr. Burgman was born on that place in 1884. For the past 20 years he has lived in Klamath county but is back here to stay indefinitely. Mr. Burgman used to be extra driver of the stage line to Crescent City. He drove from Waldo to Maryadams. His father mined on the Althouse in 1880 before selling his claim to a Chinaman. Mr. Burgman also mined on the Althouse around 1900.

M. C. Athey made a special trip to Crescent City last Tuesday to meet a group of newspaper men on their way home from California at a luncheon given in their honor by the Crescent City Chamber of Commerce. When he arrived he found the news men had passed through Crescent City early that morning, stopping only long enough to give their regrets at not being able to stop for the scheduled luncheon on account of the strike on the three daily news papers in Portland.
