FATHER'S DAY

Song and story have been written about mother, but it is seldom that we hear anything about "dear old dad" except in the song where we wanted a wife like he had.

Next Sunday, June 19, has been set aside that we might stop and think a little more about dad and all he has done for us.

Any father that has gone through the last nine years of depression, recession, AND THE SESSIONS OF CONGRESS without losing his mind is a good man and entitles him to the esteem of his wife and children.

Dad has had one of the greatest struggles to keep the home fires burning and the children in school of any since the founding of this republic.

So Sunday let us show dad that we appreciate what he has done for us. Let us show him that we love and respect him even if we do not show it throughout the year. This Sunday is "Father's Day." Make it the biggest day in the year for "dear old dad."

FACE FACTS AND STRUGGLE

This is not saying either for or against the practices other than to show that money goes to other channels than formerly, which may have bearing upon present conditions.

It seems that people are more pleasure-bent than formerly, consequently, many legitimate articles are done without in order to "get more out of life." There has been a tendency to eat less, to cut down "living expenses," while spending the sum saved for the divers forms of entertainment and incidental pleasure excursions.

As a result, the grocer, the baker and the merchant has felt his usual volume of trade reduced to some extent, which is attributed to "hard times." In course of this tendency to avoid "necessary obligations" to take advantage of the "unnecessary expenses" we as a nation have developed the characteristic symptoms of the spendthrift.

People talk, and what people talk of is infectious. We also like to believe what is being talked about, be it "hard times," economic depression or what not. Sometimes we believe until it hurts, and then we wish to forget about it. The reality seems painful, boring and cruel. How to escape it? Go to a movie. Dance to captivating music. In this manner we shove reality aside. Momentarily, we have forgotten about rent being due, the demands of the grocer, the doctor's bill, the merchant's reminder, and we are happy.

Let's quit living a world of make-believe, face facts and struggle with realities.

Father of Father's Day

Here is Harry C. Meek of Chicago, credited as the originator of Father's Day, celebrated throughout the United States June 19. Meek started the movement in 1915. He has testimonial letters from Presidents Harding and Coolidge, thanking him for making possible a day honoring the fathers of America.

KERBY NEWS NOTES

Mr. and Mrs. George Thrasher and family spent the week end at Crescent City.

Mr. and Mrs. Clay Ramsey spent last Sunday at the Umpqua auto camp near Roseburg, visiting Mrs. Ramsey's sister.

"Shorty" Phillips returned Monday from a weeks fishing at the mouth of Smith river. Not any great success was mentioned.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Lackey of near Kerby had as week end guests, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Lackey of Fresno, Calif. The two men are brothers.

Georgia Trefethen Wells and small son returned to Oakland, Calif., after spending several days Millie Trefethen. She was accompanied by her mother as far as Eureka.

Mr. and Mrs. Alva Laws returned yesterday from a trip north and to the different Oregon beaches and left Wednesday for Trail, Oregon, where Mr. Laws has employment at the Ranger station.

Mrs. Art Kellert, Mrs. Irene McCasland and Mrs. Les Henry have been picking strawberries at Jerome Prairie, taking advantage of the chance offered there to those who wished to pick berries for canning.

Mr. Misner of Albany, formerly of Kerby, has been renewing friendships during the past few days. Misner lived at Kerby 27 years ago and owned part of the present Pomroy ranch. His home was on the road west of the river from Kerby, and was occupied by the Brannan family part of this winter. While business is somewhat dull he is here to do some prospecting.

Mrs. Wm. McLean suffered a painful accident Tuesday morning when she caught her hand in the electric wringer while doing the family washing. Quick thinking on the part of Bud McLean released her before bones were broken or flesh torn. Badly bruised she will be unable to use her hand for several days.

Excitement was created along Main street in Kerby Wednesday noon, when Mrs. Harry Elroy noticed a chimney fire in the small house occupied by Ed Daily across from the Elroy home in Kerby. A small portion of the roof had caught on fire. Mrs. Elroy aroused Mr. Daily and spread the alarm. The local fire truck and Cave Junction's fire truck were called and both were soon on the job. The Cave Junction department making the trip in three minutes. A fire in the vicinity of the Daily house would do much damage as several small and some quite old buildings are crowded together.

Mrs. W. O. Burch made a trip to Grants Pass last Monday. She was accompanied by Mrs. J. M. Hout and Miss Eleanor Bennett.

AUGUST K. KROUSE

August Karl Krouse, aged 51 years, died at his home near Holland, last Tuesday morning at 9 a. m. He was born October 13, 1886. He has resided in the valley for the past two years. Mr. Krouse is survived by his wife, Laura.

Services were conducted today at 2:30 p. m. by the Hull and Hull Funeral Home with Rev. William A. Brown officiating. Mrs. Cecil Varner sang, "What a Friend We Have in Jesus," "The Old Rugged Cross" and "Nearer My God to Thee." Mr. Krouse's favorite song. Burial was in the I. O. O. F. cemetery at Kerby.

George W. Martin, accompanied by Dr. and Mrs. A. N. Collman left for Portland, last Tuesday morning. Mr. Martin and Dr. Collman will attend the Masonic Grand Lodge meetings. They will return Sunday.

A. J. Barklow of the Coos Bay Times in Marshfield was a caller at The News office the first of the week. Mr. Barklow is on his vacation and before returning to his home was making a trip through the Oregon Caves.

Insurance!

If your house or store should burn, are you protected with a good fire insurance policy? You should be.

Fire insurance is not a luxury, it is a protection against loss by fire and anyone who owns a store or home should be fully protected against loss by fire.

Is your automobile insured—Are you protected against accidents? This is an important matter for the new state laws are very strict, Protect yourself? against Accidents... Talk to day with

A PLEA FOR A SINNER

Dear Mr. God, please listen,
Since I had to give him up,
Please take good care of Tippy, Sir;
—He's such a little pup.

Mother says You called to him
And he just had to go.
I wonder if he misses me,
'Cause, Gee, I miss him so.

I know You'll treat him awful nice.
But he's really lots of care.
And if it's raining out-of-doors,
He'll track mud everywhere.

He'll sure get into everything
If You leave him just a crack.
But, Mr. God, if he bothers You,
I'd be glad to have him back.
