COOKING SCHOOL

The Cave City Theatre and The Illinois Valley News are delighted to announce that they have secured for the ladies of the valley one of the nation's great cooking schools.

Manager Rout of the theatre says: "It is indeed a pleasure to tell the ladies of the valley that we are able to bring this splendid cooking school to them. We will make every effort to make it one of the outstanding schools of the county, and we hope all the ladies of the valley will take advantage of the chance to see this marvelous picture, 'Star in My Kitchen' cooking school."

The News says the same thing, and both the sponsors will do all in their power to make the school an outstanding success. Remember the dates and make no other plans for these three important dates. Attend the school and see how the best cooks in the nation prepare their meals.

THE COMING ELECTION

It is the duty of every American citizen to exercise his franchise and go to the polls and vote on election day. Ours is a democratic nation where the people rule by their choice at the polls, and the majority of the people rule.

Under our governmental system, we are ruled by the choice of the people, our political system is so designed to make it easy for everyone to vote. When you enter a polling booth, you are with yourself and Almighty God, and your own conscience, and there is no one there to tell you what you have to do, and no one knows afterwards what you have done.

So no one has an excuse, other than sickness or away from home, not to vote, especially at national elections. We urge every eligible voter to make it a point to cast their ballot on November 8th at the next general election. It makes no difference whom you vote for, but vote, and if we all vote, the majority will rule.

THE AUTUMN TREES

In all our experience we have never seen the trees in the Illinois Valley excel for beauty of color. We do not believe it is our privilege to see this sight very often, but mother nature has so arranged her trimmings this year, to the very best advantage, and those who live in the cities should not pass up the opportunity of driving through the valley and see the wonderful color scheme nature has placed on the trees.

The weather has been just right to make this beautiful sight. The nights have been crisp enough to give the leaves a gradual tinge that defies humans to duplicate their beauty with paint and brush. In a few days the rich colors will be gone as the cold nights begin to creep on us, but at the present time, the trees are the most gorgeous, in their autumn grandeur, we have ever seen.

REDWOOD EMPIRE ASSOCIATION

One of the most successful annual meetings ever held by the Redwood Empire association was in session last week end at Eureka, California, when a capacity membership attended the convention.

Josephine County should be proud of the record made at this meeting. When county delegates were asked to stand, Josephine county's delegation outnumbered all other counties and when noses were counted, 32 delegates were from Josephine county.

Theo. G. Cramer, manager of the United States National bank at Grants Pass was toastmaster at the Friday night banquet, and did such a fine job of it that congratulations were extended from all counties in the empire. "Ted" was the hit of the meeting and added to the prestige of the Josephine county delegation.

The rest of the counties in the Redwood Empire know that Josephine county is a live member and always ready to do her part and more. It was a great meeting and much important business was transacted.

RICH GOLD STRIKE AT MT. EMILY

Three good sized gold nuggets were shown yesterday to Ed Trembley, miner and brother of Earl F. Trembley of the Travelers Hotel, by John Dailey, an experienced miner from Colorado, who claims that the nuggets were found at Mt. Emily.

One nugget weighed 3 1/2 ounces one 2 1/4 ounces, and a smaller one, found at Willow Creek, which originates at the base of Mt. Emily.

Mr. Dailey believes that a rich vein of ore will be uncovered in or near this mountain and is now seeking the owner of the property to enter into an agreement for exploration and development.

Although Mt. Emily is situated in Josephine county, Oregon, it is quite accessible to Del Norte county residents.

Birthday Party for Ben Harpold Last Week

LETTERS

Eldridge, California,
Oct. 19, 1938.

My dear Phil Snort:

Thank you for the copy of The Illinois Valley News giving me a chance to read the Phil Snort column and to recognize one candidate for county judge. I just wish I had a vote in Josephine county and for you I would even tear around the country-side with a placard on my pink Buick in great purple letters reading "Vote for Phil Snort for county judge—the choice of the people."

On that day in June when my sister and I said goodbye to you and pulled out on our trip north we jaunted to the Oregon Caves as instructed. We had such an interesting and thrilling time squandering away the day in utter enjoyment that the afternoon was on the wane before we realized miles were yet to be traveled ere sundown. That day stood out as one of the most enjoyable and we recommend the Oregon Caves to many fellow travelers as an experience well worth while with very excellent cuisine at the Inn.

The remainder of the summer has been so busy it has slipped by almost unnoticed. The Griswolds will be dropping in to see you soon and will the gab-fest start. I wonder who can talk the longest and fastest. I suggest you put this to good use and make a campaigner out of Mr. Griswold.

It has just occurred to me I do not know your postoffice address, so here goes a long chance on Phil Snort being so well known in them that parts no one can miss him—even thru the Uncle Sam's mails.

Then we stopped at one of my favorite spots on the top of the world, Mt. Rainier. The avalanche lilies, lupine, paintbrush and many other blooms were at their height amid snow banks.

Please remember me to Mrs. Webb.

Sincerely yours,
Inezetta Holt.

month before. Money was voted to hire a man to put up the fence.

Alva Laws, principal of the grade school had an interesting display of basketry which project is being worked out in the 7th and 8th grades. Mr. Laws had on the display board the basket from the raw reed to the finished product, a very suitable gift as sewing or fruit basket. Mr. Laws also suggested that if sufficient members of the association were interested that he could arrange to give an evening to instruction. It was voted to order 10 pounds of the fire cord and come to the next meeting prepared to learn basketry.

For entertainment the remainder of the evening was in charge of Mrs. Martin Sachse and Mrs.

Paul Kunkle who put on three contests. Mrs. Kellert won the first by pinning the tail on the Hallowe'en cat. Maurice Sauer won the apple eating contest and Jim Hogue ended the balancing contest by breaking the stone jar he was balancing on. Mrs. McLean had succeeded in her attempt at the same feat. At the close of the evening refreshments were served by Mrs. Arthur Lindley and Mrs. F. W. Jones.

the Chamber to recommend. The Chamber asked Mr. McLean to get the wishes of the people of the valley, and if they desired the plan he proposed, the Chamber would do all it could to help them. The letter is in another column of this issue of The News

Traffic control for the schools at Kerby came up for consideration. It was reported that the school board had this matter under advisement and the matter was left to them.

Next Tuesday the Chamber will meet again in the Hotel Drews dining room. But we want to tell the members that if they do not attend, we will not have a place to eat and transact business. Mrs. Jackson cannot prepare for a dozen and have only six attend the luncheon. If the members of the Chamber want this service, they will have to attend or else find some place else to hold their meetings. Mrs. Jackson did not say this, but we know that she cannot keep this thing up. If you think the Chamber is worthwhile, it is worth while attending. Let's make next Tuesday a good meeting and attend.

Leterman's club sponsored a benefit dance in the gym to start a fund for their treasury. The gym was attractively decorated with two large red K's on white at each end of the room to carry out the school colors. Red and green lights gave a soft glow to the room. To carry out the autumn effect, leaves were used in the corners. Lunch was served at mid-night by the Girls League. Nineteen dollars clear was taken in by the Girls League. The Leterman's club took in over $64.
