Teachers to fill the vacancies will not be elected until a board meeting in May.

Jack Ackley, miner from Josephine creek, was in Kerby for supplies Monday. Mr. Ackley, who has been a cowboy in the middle west, logger in the big camps in northern Oregon and now a miner, can recount many interesting experiences. He claims that on his place on Josephine creek is where Josephine, after whom this county was named, was buried and that her remains were removed from there, but her wedding ring was never found.
