MEETING "PROSPERITY"

Our campaign aimed to show how "Prosperity" can be brought to all of us is causing considerable thought among some of our readers who have started their scrap book and are going to follow through. There has been many queries concerning the book, "T. N. T.—It Rocks the Earth," by Claude M. Bristol, the theme of which opened our eyes to the great power existing in every man and woman. In view of the fact that no distributor in Southern Oregon carries this book, we have made arrangements with the publishers to get a limited supply of this result getting book which may be obtained for one dollar. The book will make your study of this interesting theme much clearer, and we positively know anyone who follows through with this theme, gets what they want.

Are you a little selfish? Do you hate to see someone else getting along and making a success? Rate yourself. Where do you belong.

"Prosperity" is not at all selfish. In fact, he usually "gets his man" if he is a selfish individual. Selfishness breeds dislike. While "Prosperity" is no respecter of individuals, however, he greets and approves of characters that shine with pleasantness to all, successful or not.

Claude Bristol's theme teaches us to be forceful in character, and those who obtain that coveted form, are not jealous of another's success and are pleasing and pleasant to all. Take a look around you and you can count on your fingers those who stand out above all others in your respect. You may not pick the same ones I would, nevertheless, they stand out above all others to you, and this means that you let them stand out above you.

Don't let anyone overshadow you in character, but don't be selfish about it. Character is personality and it CAN BE DEVELOPED. Watch yourself closely. Study yourself. Make yourself agreeable and likeable to all. This does not mean that you must agree with everybody, but when you disagree, it can be done in such a manner that it demands respect from your opponent. Don't argue. Arguments never convince.

Think pleasant thoughts. Don't be pessimistic. Be optimistic and smile with success and adversity alike. An infectious smile is the surest way to defeat old man adversity.

Rate yourself every day. Keep ever at it, and soon you will develop one of the most pleasing characters. Then you have personality, and personality is the first cousin to "Prosperity."

OUR NEW DEPUTY SHERIFF

We want to congratulate Sheriff Don Barnes for his selection of the new chief deputy sheriff. Don looked the county over and then decided to give the position to Dr. A. N. Collman of Cave Junction.

While the Illinois Valley will miss Dr. Collman, more perhaps than any other single person, because of his personality, his desire to be of assistance to his fellow man.

Dr. Collman has made many friends in this valley and while they rejoice for him and his family at their good fortune, they realize that they are losing one of their best friends and a distinguished citizen of the valley. They have one consolation, however, he is not going far, and will have plenty of opportunities to visit the valley and keep in touch with old friends.

To you and yours, Arnold, The News and hundreds of your loyal friends wish you happiness and prosperity in your new position.

Last week The News published that the Methodist Church Conference had removed the seats from the Bridgeview church. We were not quite accurate in the statement. It was the American Sunday School Union for the establishment of a Sunday School in Kerby.

If our article last week offended or hurt anyone, we sincerely regret it. It most certainly was not our intention. Our only desire was to provide seats for a church. The conference who owned the seats certainly have the right to place them in any church. We want all churches to have seats and a place to worship

Often the one who is absent from the bridge party gets the most slams.
