Cottons Have New Roles This Spring

Cottons have new roles in the creation of spring fashions. Pique and linen, for example, are used for white togues and sailors to wear with navy blue suits. These fabrics also are important for collar and cuff sets that are attached to dark evening dresses. Gloves also are being made of these washable materials.

Gingham accents are equally as popular and unusual in their application to newest costumes. Plaid gingham pipings appear as trimming on navy blue reefer suits and also make matching blouses.

New Hairdress Is Becoming Popular

A new hairdress covers the entire head in flat curls that remind of a boyish bob. It is very youthful and is referred to as the "little girl" hairdress. The high-do for hair is seen less in the daytime but still persists for formal occasion. At the immediate moment hair worn page-boy fashion is popular. A pleasing compromise is the arrangement that brings curls or puffs up to the front in somewhat of a pompadour effect, with the almost shoulder-length end-curl bob at the back.

A Town Bag for You

One of the new handbags in rough straw braid is a navy town bag in plain rectangular shape with thick base, having a heavy gold chain around it near the top to simulate drawstrings.

Combining Jacket
Being Modernized

The fussy "combining jacket" that mother used to wear has been superseded by a trim rubber cape which has many other uses besides keeping stray hairs from settling on a clean dress or blouse. Slipped on and off in a jiffy, it is ideal for repairing complexions and for washing up at odd moments when there isn't time to disrobe.

One of the newest make-up capes on the market has a little pocket in the form of a flower for holding hair pins, powder puff, or comb. The soft rubberized fabric takes to soap and water like a dish cloth, thus making it possible to keep its delicate pastel colors flower-fresh.

Fashion Designers Turn Lilac-Minded

Each season this flower or that flower is especially featured. Paris milliners have turned lilac-minded this spring, either trimming with lilac clusters or in some instances making togues and even tiny sailor hats of them. Wear a lilac spray on your dark or light coat, it is one of the popular flowers of the moment in fashion's realm. Carnations are also worn.

Checked Costume

It is considered smart this season to have at least one Shepherd's checked costume in the wardrobe.

Silk for Action

Washable and noncrushable silks for active sportswear have been endorsed by Paris.

M. J. Sauer was over from Tulelake Wednesday. He left Thursday morning taking with him Louise and Leslie Henry who will make their future home in Tulelake.

J. W. Eggers had the misfortune of running a sliver of wood through his left hand Monday while working on Cecil Owens water tower at Takilma. The hand is improving rapidly.
