Double Feature Coming Wednesday and Thursday

"BILLY THE KID RETURNS"

"The first Clark Gable to be seen on a horse." Such is the way several reviewers have described Roy Rogers, sensational new western star who will be seen at the Cave City theatre Wednesday and Thursday, June 14 and 15 in his second starring Republic Picture, "Billy the Kid Returns."

Rogers' first picture, "Under Western Stars" has created more comment during the past three months than any western film ever produced. It has been called the greatest picture of its type in the history of movies.

"STAR OF MIDNIGHT"

William Powell encounters the most baffling mystery of his career in "Star of Midnight," glamorous romance with a modern New York setting. As compensation for the difficulty of the case, he has peppery, titian tressed Ginger Rogers as his assistant in clue tracing, the two being co-starred in the screen drama.

Based on a magazine story by the late Arthur Somers Roche, this sophisticated story unites Powell and Miss Rogers on the screen for the first time. The plot centers about the weird disappearance of a beautiful woman, and the mysterious murder of a newspaper columnist which follows.

H. H. Wilson of Kerby is having a new coat of paint put on his residence.
