MEETING "PROSPERITY"

Our campaign aimed to show how "Prosperity" can be brought to all of us is causing considerable thought among some of our readers who have started their scrap book and are going to follow through. There has been many queries concerning the book, "T. N. T.—It Rocks the Earth," by Claude M. Bristol, the theme of which opened our eyes to the great power existing in every man and woman. In view of the fact that no distributor in Southern Oregon carries this book, we have made arrangements with the publishers to get a limited supply of this result getting book which may be obtained for one dollar. The book will make your study of this interesting theme much clearer, and we positively know anyone who follows through with this theme, gets what they want.

Thank Claude Bristol for the following Tap:

A few days ago I was asked: "Just how is a person without enthusiasm going to get it."

With the thought that some of my readers may get something helpful I give the answer I gave to the question.

Enthusiasm comes from two sources—one from within the individual and the other is caught by contagion as it were, from another or other people.

The enthusiasm from within the individual comes only when that individual makes up his or her mind that he or she is going to get something done or obtain something, and then puts his or her heart and soul into the deal to put it over. That in itself generates interest and genuine enthusiasm and if that enthusiasm is developed to white heat it will inspire others to the same degree.

In the second instance if you contact inspiring people and are associated with them for any length of time and they themselves are enthusiastic to the Nth degree, that same enthusiasm, being contagious, will vibrate to you and you, too, will exude that enthusiasm.

Of course, if you are a lame duck with no interest in life and don't want to go places or do anything you are immune, but I take it that you really want to get somewhere higher than you are. So if you want enthusiasm, go to work on yourself, as directed.

HONORS IN THE HOME

Housewives need no longer lament that there is no disposition to honor them for the work they do at home—that trained nurses and skilled secretaries and adept saleswomen get the bulk of the glory and most of the more tangible recompense that comes with services well rendered.

More and more are national institutions and agencies recognizing the value of purely domestic activities and more and more is there general indication of increasing appreciation of what the housewives are accomplishing. Substantial rewards are being offered and won in the realms of culinary actions.

It is no light task for a woman to plan—and perhaps prepare—more than a thousand meals a year, not to mention the numerous other duties that good housekeeping implies. Modern women deserve all the recompense that comes their way for what they are doing for the betterment of the race. Their reward will include the knowledge that there is truth as well as sentiment in the old saying, "Man is what some women makes of him." This includes, of course, not only the good results that follow housekeeping well done but also, unfortunately, the evils that ensue when carelessness, or worse, mark the accomplishments of the domestic establishment.

Housewives occupy a responsible position as well as an honorable one in modern living. Only good can come from proper recognition and appreciation of their place in life.

Thank God every morning when you get up that you have something to do which must be done whether you like it or not. Being forced to work, and forced to do your best, will breed in you temperance, self control, diligence, strength of will, content, and a hundred other virtues which the idle will never know.—Kingsley.

Sunday July 6 was another one of those busy days at the church. We always observe the first Sunday in the month as Communion Sunday. It was a very impressive service.

The evening service was well attended; good song service and a good time. Our new seats are all in and are very comfortable. We now have a good piano in the church. We bought Paul Hein's piano and moved it last week.

This will be a great improvement to our song service. The Sunday night sermon theme was based on the words of Jesus where He says, "Be of Good Courage," and was a "Cheer up" message. Subject for Sunday night, July 13 will be "The second coming of Christ." The Little Church with the big welcome. Ed. Wright, pastor.

LETTERS

Illinois Valley News, Gentlemen:

I certainly would like to have the East Fork of the Illinois river bed dragged out to control the winter's high water, as my ranch is in danger of being ruined by the river changing its course. I am south of the Pefferle dam.

Yours truly,
F. F. HIBBARD.
