Indicating the necessity for an intensive campaign for the safety of elderly pedestrians, Earl Snell, secretary of state, today declared that 80 per cent of the pedestrians killed in Portland during the first six months of 1939 were over 55 years of age. Forty-five per cent were over 65 years of age.

Famous Pacer Dan Patch Was National Celebrity

In his day Dan Patch was a national celebrity. He was a pacer, and the first horse ever to do a mile in harness under 2 minutes. To understand the immense interest in him it is necessary to recall that in 1905, when he paced the mile in 1:55 1/4, the automobile was still an experiment. To the American people, the possession of a horse and buggy was a mark of respectability, and to have a bit of blood between the shafts, or a fast, spanking team, was a social distinction, observes a writer in the Kansas City Times.

That was the reason why nearly every farm home, and many a city home, in those days had a picture of Dan Patch on the wall. We can remember that old picture yet. It was a famous chromo and showed the noted bay fairly flying along, every foot off the ground, the spokes of the sulky behind him a blur, and the driver leaning forward, his arms taut on the reins, the very personification of speed. It was a thrilling picture, and one understandable to every one as it would not be in this day of steering wheels and foot throttles.

Trust in God, Keep Powder Dry

The saying, "Trust in God and keep your powder dry" is attributed to Oliver Cromwell. It is supposed to have originated during one of his campaigns in Ireland in 1649 or 1650. According to tradition, Cromwell made an impassioned address to his "Ironsides" when they were about to attack the enemy who had taken position on the opposite side of the river. He concluded his speech with the admonition: "Put your trust in God, but mind to keep your powder dry." This tradition is vouched for by Edward Hayes in his "Ballads of Ireland," which was published in 1855. The compiler comments on the subject in a note under the ballad "Oliver's Advice," which was written in 1834 by Colonel Blacker, a British officer. Each stanza of Blacker's ballad ends with the line "Put your trust in God, my boys, and keep your powder dry."

UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR, GENERAL LAND OFFICE, O. & C. ADMINISTRATION, PORTLAND, OREGON—Sealed bids, marked outside "Bid for Timber", and addressed to the Chief Forester, O. and C. Administration, 410 Custom House, Portland, Oregon, will be received until 10:30 a. m., Pacific Time, Sep. 22, 1939, for the purchase of timber upon tracts hereinafter described; the cutting and removal of the timber to be carried out in accordance with the forest practice rules approved on July 7, 1938 by the Secretary of the Interior. Each bid must state the amount per thousand feet, board measure, that will be paid for each species or class of timber. No bid for less than the appraised value will be considered.

Each bid must be submitted in duplicate and be accompanied by a deposit. The deposit must be in the form of a certified check on a solvent National Bank and in favor of the Chief Forester of the O. and C. Administration. The amount of the deposit will be computed at the rate of at least 20 per cent of the first $1000 of the bid, plus at least 10 per cent of any additional amount of the bid in excess of $1000 and up to $10,000. The deposit of any successful bidder will be credited as a first installment in payment for the timber. Checks of unsuccessful bidders will be returned upon award of the bid. A bond on all sales will be required in an amount computed at the rate of at least 20 per cent of the first $10,000 of the bid, plus 10 per cent of any additional amount of the bid in excess of $10,000.

Payment for timber will be required in advance of cutting, payment in full at the time of filing the contract being required in sales amounting to $2000 or less. In larger sales, payment may be made in a number of installments scheduled to keep pace with the rate of timber cutting and payable upon demand from the Chief Forester.

The successful bidder in each sale exceeding $5000 in amount will be required, prior to the approval of the contract covering such sale, to furnish a sworn financial statement showing ability to fulfill the terms of the contract. For copies of the form of proposal, form of contract and bond, and other information, application should be made to the Chief Forester, O. and C. Administration, Portland, Oregon.

The timber volumes, given in the following appraisals, are estimated and may be more or less than the amounts stated.
