MEETING "PROSPERITY"

Claude Bristol, hearing that the bloak who writes this stuff was playing wall flower all by his lonesome in bed, sent a nice letter and enclosed a clipping from the Journal of Portland, with a story right down our alley. Read what Elsie Robinson has to say in a column devoted to the interest of women:

WHAT D'YE WANT?

Wailers at Fate Should Housé to Importance of Self-Help

You want lots of life You're always peeving because you don't get enough, wondering how you can get more, and asking people, reading books.

Well, you'll get lots of answers, but if you really want to make a success of living, there is just one fact you must face—You've got to know what you want.

You can go practically anywhere in life—do almost anything you wish if you know what you want before you start.

There's just one thing that life and your fellow men can't and won't do for you, and that is, make up your mind. This seems a reasonable statement when set down in print, but most of us spend all our days bucking it. We're always expecting the other fellow to shape our program for us, or waiting for lady luck to hand it to us on a silver platter.

I don't know much about God, but I've seen plenty of life. And I'm telling you that if you can't do your own picking you're out of luck. Life has no use for sissies or cry babies or gimme-gimme kids. Life will give you what you want when you ask for it, and not until.

If you can make up your mind what you want, peace or power, freedom or protection, opportunity, adventure or quiet reflection, when you can make up your mind and are willing to back the desire with all you have, then you'll get it.

And this applies to every person in every circumstance. To heckled husbands and worried wives, to men out of jobs and men in jobs that don't fit their stature, to all people who are sorry for themselves and feel somebody should do something for them

There is somebody who should do something about you, but that somebody is yourself.

Make up your mind what you want. There's nothing criminal about that, nothing cruel. It is not only your right but your duty. You were put here to do something—be something. Well, what's holding you? Only yourself and your indecision.

"But the human race is still savage," you say; "every man grabbing for every other man's throat. A poor man hasn't a chance."

Are you telling me! I was as poor as you can ever be—as ignorant—as hurt and likewise as full of blubbering self pity. But, bigolly, I made up my mind and I crashed the gate—and so can you!

The doors of wisdom are never shut.

We are glad to report that some of our sick folk have improved enough to be able to attend church again but not all are well. Mrs. James and family were shut in with colds and we had to get along without special music last Sunday. We are preaching a series of sermons on the eighth chapter of Romans in our Sunday Morning services and the theme last Sunday was "Spiritual Freedom." Text, Romans, 8, 1. The house was well filled Sunday night and gave us good attention while we made an evangelistic appeal on "Jesus, the Way." We are planning next Sunday night's program especially for the CCC men.

Question: Who can tell us a better place in the Illinois Valley for our children to spend Sunday nights than in the Community Church? Good music, comfortable seats and a spirit of warm friendliness.

"The little Church with the big welcome."

Ed Wright, Pastor

Needle is Honored

Japanese custom honors the "spirit" of a needle, after the instrument is outworn. The needle is embedded in a soft cake which becomes its last resting place.

PAYNE SCHOOL NEWS

By Carol George

For Monday's Lincoln day program we had the following: Song, America; Reading, Carol George; Reading, Myrtle Pullen; Gettysburg speech, Mrs. Watts; Reading, Jean George.

Myrtle Pullen loaned us a phonograph on which we are going to use records to learn to march.

The teacher asks each one to bring to school all the odd shaped and odd colored rocks we could find and as far as possible we are to find out what kind of rocks they are.

A part of last week was spent in the studying of trees to tell from the bark and foliage the kind of trees that grow in our vicinity.

Over the week end each pupil was required to keep a list of the birds they saw. We will keep this up for the balance of the term to keep track of the birds that come from the south.

Those on the honor roll for the first semester were Jean George 1.3 and Carol George 1.04 grades.

All of us were very curious Tuesday when Mrs. Watts announced we were not to bring any lunch Wednesday, when Mrs. Watts served us a lunch of buns, hot dogs, salad and caks for a valentine. We also had our exchange of valentines at the noon hour. We wish Valentine's day came more often.
