

DOUBLE FEATURE
NEXT WEDNESDAY

"Pioneers of the West," new offering in the "Three Mesquiteers" series, comes Wednesday and Thursday at the Cave City theater.

The story deals with the efforts of the pioneers to make a home for themselves in the west, in spite of marauding Indians and scheming politicians who seek to wrest from them the homes they have established at great cost.

A thrilling action drama "Parole Fixer", is an added feature on this program.

cross from the men who trade in freedom for felons in "Parole Fixer", but the patrons get a square deal in thrills and entertainment when they see this melodrama which shows at the Caves City theater with the other feature.

"Parole Fixer" puts the finger on the persons responsible for miscarriage of justice in the parole system: crooked lawyers, corrupt parole board members, and well-meaning citizens who obligingly lend their names and prestige to schemes for freeing crooks. The picture deals with such a typical story in which Anthony Quinn and Robert Paige, convicted criminals, are set free to prey on the very people who gave them their liberty. The companion feature on this double program is "Pioneers of the West".

Among new improvements in the valley for tourist trade is the Waldo Motel at O'Brien, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Balzke, owners. All of the cabins in this popular motel are redecorated and spruced up for the summer trade.

Mrs. Anna Hill of New Castle, Indiana, mother of Mrs. George W. Martin, arrived in Cave Junction this week and will make an indefinite stay here visiting her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Martin and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Elza Ring and baby of Grants Pass spent last Sunday at the I. K. Drake home. Also dinner guests at the Drake home were Mr. Wade, Nora Gran and Naomi. They visited friends in the valley on Monday.
