It being Mrs. Cochran's birthday she was the recipient of many gifts, cards and best wishes. The guests gathered on the porch after the sumptuous meal for fortune telling and games. Wishing Mrs. Cochran many, many happy returns the guests left for home, reluctantly, because of the late hour.

How Do We Get That Way,

Last week we ran a classified ad in the For Sale list for a 1927 Pontiac Sedan, and gave the address of the seller as A. E. Anderson, Kerby, Oregon. We hope you did not try to find him. This week try G. A. Peterson if you are looking for a bargain in a good used automobile. G. A. lives in Kerby.

Cave City Coffee Shop Remodeled

A complete remodelling job, re-decorated inside and out, and a large additional dining room extended, has been completed for the Cave City Coffee Shop and now they can take care of many more guests. The new dining room has new tables and chairs and seats 18 more patrons.

Miss Victoria Jasperson is the proprietress of this popular eating house that has had an increase in business every year, which justified the expansion. A new service has been provided for sandwich and light drinks, curb service. Cars can drive up and patrons stay in the car while they are served.

Besides the new tables and chairs, an ice cream cabinet has been installed and a new oil burner in the kitchen range.
