

Marines Attract Youths

The restless spirit of American youth is becoming more evident every day, and even when there are no pressing economic problems at home, there is an inborn desire on the part of every young man for travel and adventure.

Such is the opinion of Major James B. Hardie, in charge of the Marine Corps recruiting station at Portland, Oregon, who states that the first question asked by each applicant is "Where do we go from here?"

They do not always put the question in that fashion, but the examining officer can readily see that their chief desire is to get started for one of the numerous Marine Corps posts at home or abroad, and especially one which happens to be in some far corner of the globe.

Most of the young men who seek enlistment in the Marine Corps nowadays are not of the hitch-hiking type. Many of them are natives of localities from 25 to 30 miles from the city.

They enlist for nearly every reason under the sun, and mainly because they have either failed to find satisfactory employment at home or have succumbed to the natural desire of nearly every normal youth to travel about a bit and see what is going on elsewhere.

Happily the Marine Corps is able to fulfill that desire very satisfactorily. The entire Corps is trained with a view to quick mobilization or the rapid shifting of units here and there.

Officers and men change locations constantly. The main training stations at Parris Island, South Carolina, and San Diego, California, have virtually an entire "turn over" every few months with men leaving for sea duty, for foreign service, or for one of the widely-scattered posts where Marines are serving.

ALL DRIVERS MUST PASS EXAMINATION

In response to many inquiries regarding the new law requiring the examination of drivers passed by the 1939 session of the legislature, Secretary of State Earl Snell issued the following statement:

"Under this act any driver who has not taken the test since July 1, 1939, will be required to pass the examination before renewing his driver's license unless that person has at the time of application or within the four-year period immediately prior thereto passed the examination required by the state."—Grants Pass Courier.

Scott's Market Takes Triangle Feed Agency

George Scott of Scott's Market recently purchased the stock of Seat's Seed and Feed store and will continue to supply the residents of the valley with this brand of merchandise.

A local representative of the Triangle Mills was here this week and made arrangements with the market to carry a complete stock of this brand of seeds and feeds. An announcement from the Triangle company appears on another page.

Gasoline Consumption Increased 24 Percent

Oregon motorists and visiting motorists burned 26,145,735 gallons of gasoline during the month of June, an increase of 24 percent over the gasoline consumption for the same month of 1939, figures compiled by Earl Snell, secretary of state, revealed.

The June consumption was 5,065,553 gallons over the 1939 June consumption and set a new all-time record for one month's use of gasoline in this state. The highest previous month was July of last year when consumption totaled 25,150,011 gallons.

Tax paid on the gasoline this June amounted to $1,307,87.05 which is an increase of $253,277.73 over the gasoline tax of last June.

"This remarkable increase in the use of gasoline in Oregon during June must be attributed largely to increased travel on the part of Oregon residents," Snell commented. "Non-resident registrations decreased 14 percent during the month, indicating fewer tourists than for the corresponding month a year ago."

Another factor believed partly responsible for the increased consumption is the increase in motor vehicle registration in this state. At the end of June this year, there were 371,664 motor vehicles registered in Oregon, 21,820 more than for the same period last year. Private cars totaled 305,124, an increase of 16,845 vehicles.

LOCAL PEOPLE VISIT CAVES

C. E. Thacker of Cave Junction, Mrs. S. S. Thacker and C. V. Thacker of Yakima, Washington, were among the visitors at the Oregon Caves Wednesday. Mrs. L. J. Hill of Cave Junction also visited the Caves Tuesday. Aside from the unique limestone formations within the Caves, the drive through the huge Douglas fir trees to the resort was enjoyed by the local visitors.

Mrs. Quincy Woodcock was taken to the Josephine General Hospital in Grants Pass for medical treatment this week. She recently underwent an operation and has since then been with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Lewis.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Messenger of Takilma have had as guests, Mr. Messenger's niece and nephew Miss Muriel Keith and Walter Keith of Seattle. Richard Messenger, their son, also spent the week end visiting his parents. He is now employed at Mollala, Oregon.

Joe Harper left last Saturday for Chicago and St. Louis on a buying trip for the Golden Rule store in Grants Pass. He will return with all the latest in merchandise for his store.
