On Sunday, July 2nd, a most enjoyable event was held by the Carroll clan when they assembled at a family reunion in Albany with about 70 relatives, representing 1847 pioneers of Oregon.

These four generations were proud of being ancestors of Chas. Carroll of Carlton, Ireland. Many came from Oregon and Washington, those living in California not being able to come. Mr. Carroll was the only one attending from this valley.

Next year the reunion will be held at the Samuel Carroll Donation Land Claim near Lebanon, Oregon, now occupied by Senator Cortis Stringer.
