Locals

Mr. and Mrs. Raphael Leonard made a trip to Grants Pass last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Bears were business visitors in Grants Pass this week.

Mrs. W. F. Darger spent the week end visiting her son and family in Brookings.

Mrs. Ella Sinclair of Santa Rosa, California, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Ed Pearsall for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Phillips of Ritz Tavern in Kerby were attending to business matters in Grants Pass on Tuesday.

Postmaster W. J. McLean and Fred Linkhart were transacting business in Grants Pass the first of this week.

Mrs. Ed Burke and Mrs. Dick Nealy are spending several days visiting in Ashland. They expect to return home this week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry R. Floyd spent part of last week-end at their Pebble Beach home in Crescent City.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Frost and son Leslie returned to their home near Deer creek. They have been making their home at Montague, California.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Coovert and son Richard of Portland, and Miss Irene Athey of North Bend, Oregon, visited the M. C. and L. E. Athey's over the holiday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Babcock were shopping in Grants Pass last week. In the evening they attended the Redwood Grange meeting.

Miss Aileen Whitehead who recently returned from several months stay in southern California, is now making her home with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Stone of O'Brien.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard H. Grizzell and son Bernie, left Wednesday for New Mexico and Texas where they will spend several months visiting relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Osborn of Wellington, Kansas, were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Runyan. They were on their way to Los Angeles to visit relatives before returning to their home in the east where Mr. Osborn is connected with the Wellington, Kansas, Creamery.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry R. Floyd left Sunday afternoon for Portland where they were called by the death of Al Dean of Grants Pass, who has been ailing for some time. They were accompanied by Miss Maxine Patrick. On their return they will visit C. J. Howard of Cottage Grove, a former resident of Kerby.

Francis Badden went to Eureka last Friday to stay with his father, B. L. Badden, who is driving the mail truck from Eureka to Crescent City. He returned home Sunday. On Monday Mrs. Badden left for Eureka returning the next day. In her absence Adelaide McCrady and Charlotte Badden took charge of the H & L Cafe with the assistance of Mrs. Art Kellert.

Mr. and Mrs. Lew Hammer returned from several days elk hunting. They took their daughter, Dora with them.

Mr. and Mrs. George P. Scott received an interesting letter last week from Mrs. DeEtta Scott a former resident of the valley but now making her home in Twin Falls, Idaho, and sent greetings to all her friends and acquaintances in the valley. Mrs. Scott now makes her home in Idaho with Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Schumacher and family, being the mother of Mrs. Schumacher and our own George P. Scott of Scott's Market. Mrs.

Mrs. G. A. Petersen of Kerby spent last week end in Roseburg visiting her sister.

Scott wrote that Bob is now employed in his father's store and is making plans on visiting his old home town and schoolmates in the near future.
