POPULAR YOUNG COUPLE MARRIED SATURDAY P. M.

Last Saturday afternoon, Charlotte Lorraine Badden and Jay Parkinson, Jr., were united in marriage at 3:30 p. m. in the H. & L. Cafe, the Rev. George H. Gray officiating.

Miss Badden is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Badden of Cave Junction and Mr. Parkinson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jay Parkinson of Los Angeles.

The marriage was solemnized in the H. & L. Cafe, Mr. and Mrs. Badden, proprietors with only the immediate family and a few friends present. Miss Adelaide McCready was the bridesmaid and Thomas W. Heard was the best man. Mrs. Mae Haynes and Frances Badden were also present. Bert Badden, father of the bride, came from Eureka, California for the wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Parkinson will make their future home about half a mile south of Cave Junction, where Mr. Parkinson is building a group of tourists cabins.

Flowers for the wedding were furnished by Mrs. E. J. Wilber, violets, and they were indeed beautiful. Mrs. Parkinson is a senior at Kerby high school, and will attend school until she graduates in June.

COUNTY ROAD SALARIES BOOSTED

Salaries of most Josephine county road department employees were increased this week by the county court, including that of recently-appointed County Road Foreman Ralph Kennedy, whose monthly wage was raised from $140 to $150. The salary rises total $105 a month said the G. P. Courier in Wednesday's edition.

The road office listed the following employees and their old and new monthly salaries: George Stanbrough transit man, from $125 to $135; James Myers, grader man, $105 to $120; Fred LaForest and Jack Eggers, bulldozer operators, from $125 to $130.

H. B. Simpson, who received $105 as carpenter will receive $125 as bridge foreman. Other increases were: D. W. Conrad, blacksmith, from $105 to $120; E. E. Whittaker, Keith Wells and Ebb Hogue, road patrolmen, from $105 to $110; J. E. Hembree and H. P. Hodge, bridge workmen, from $95 to $100; Edna Freemantle, road office secretary $85 to $90.

Franz Garner, mechanic, will prove the appearance of the dining room and lobby. The work is being done by A. C. Hamrick.

George Allen has just returned home from Monterey, Calif., where he has been employed for the past two months. George says, "The 32,000 man unit, costing $12,000,000 at Fort Ord, is practically completed and they are receiving draftees by the hundreds daily."
