"MEETING PROSPERITY"

We have mentioned several times in these articles that this theme is good when used for an honorable or good purpose, and it is "T. N. T." when used for a selfish or destructive purpose.

Hitler, the mad man of Germany, uses the theme to its fullest. He is a past master with it, but he is using it for destructive purposes, and mark our words, he will come to a tragic end for so doing.

Part of his propaganda is false reports concerning the war—he gives out the news that Germany has done this and accomplished that, but soon we learn that it hasn't happened at all. But his work was to put fear into the hearts of his enemies and buoy up his own morale and of his people.

Bringing it down to earth, he is using the psychology of thought to gain his own ends. The theme works both ways, but when used for a wrong purpose, it bounces back and destroys.

We are only calling your attention to the fact that the theme works when proper application is applied. We have told you often how to get started using it. If you want to get ahead, the avenue is open, and getting ahead is not using the theme for a wrong purpose. Because it is right and proper that all of us be successful. It is our heritage and right, but comes to those who apply themselves.

OUR NEW CONGRESSMAN

Considerable speculation is rife concerning our newly designated congressional district congressman. Many self starters are already in the limelight and the primaries do not come until May 1942.

We have a man in Josephine county, on the Republican side of the fence, who stands out head and shoulders above the others, Neil Allen, Grants Pass attorney. But we do not believe Mr. Allen will seek the position. If the people want him, they will have to draft him, and we believe he is the material that needs drafting.

OFF IN A CORNER WITH PHIL SNORT

Dear Ed:

Ever since I began these wild-life letters, several people have appealed to me, both in letter and person, to carry on the fight against spot-lighting — night shooting of deer and stock; also, that much shooting of stock is done in daylight with shotguns, some using fine shot, some using buckshot, and still others using .22, rifles, but most of the night-shooting is done with .30-.30's. It seems that those who shoot cattle with shot-guns, do it because they bother around unprotected door-yards and fields. I have had reports of this kind of shooting and have lost a fine cow myself; so, you see, I am in sympathy with those who have had to stand the same. I cannot see why those who want this sabotage stopped, want the publicity burden all thrown on my shoulders; why they send me anonymous letters, or those who do sign their names, or do make verbal request, do not write the matter up themselves, send their manuscript in to the News, signed Reader or Subscriber, but be sure you sign your right name with the request not to publish. I am sure the Editor of the News will then print what you have to say. I believe that Mr. Athey has given out that the News was to be considered an open forum for the residents of the Illinois valley, but he will not print abusive or slanderous letters, signed or anonymous; no publisher will.

There is too much of "All for me and none for you" sentiment in our valley; I can do but you mustn't sort of feeling. We have all got to live and let live, then our valley will be prosperous, its people happy and our towns and hamlets will grow. Let all who do, cease to throw verbal bricks-bats of injury at their neighbors and business contemporaries. After all, we of the valley are all ruralites—hillbillies, if you please.

LINDA DARNELL

Caroline, the love-starved waif in "Chad Hanna," Walter D. Edmonds' best seller, is portrayed by Linda Darnell. The Technicolor film from the 20th Century-Fox studios also stars Henry Fonda and Dorothy Lamour and opens Wednesday at the Cave City Theater.

N. Y. A. DIRECTOR VISITS VALLEY

Earl J. Rice, N. Y. A. area director, visited Cave Junction yesterday and told of the National Youth Administration which has provided a new plan for employment plus vocational instruction for rural male youths who live too far from existing project and instruction centers to commute daily. This plan provides enough paid employment per month to defray nominal living expenses at such centers.

Literature and applications for N. Y. A. employment has been left at the News office for anyone interested.

LIVESTOCK MEN AT ANNUAL MEET

More than 125 stockmen were registered at the fifth annual meeting of the Western Oregon Livestock association held in Gold Beach Wednesday and Thursday of this week. Ranchers, buyers, forestry men and representatives of the state agricultural college attended from all parts of the state.

Wednesday afternoon sessions were taken up principally with committee meetings after the session was called to order by Albert Powers of Coquille, president of the association.

The various committees reported Thursday and interesting talks were given. As much of the program was too late for this week's paper the reports will be published next week.

Rogue River Rogues, Gold Beach business men's fun organization, took charge in the evening with a dinner and program at the community hall, assisted by Sib's Orchestra. Several prominent visitors were initiated into the Rogues and were christened with Rogue river water.

Among the more important matters taken up at the meeting were livestock outlook, wool marketing, pasture management, taxation, predatory animal control, feeding, administration of public lands. — Curry County Reporter.

Club Leaders, Advisory Board Members to Meet

On Saturday, April 19, at 1:30 p. m., in the courthouse a second meeting will be held of the 4-H Club Council. This meeting is primarily to help club leaders in details of the 4-H program.

Mr. H. C. Seymour, State Club leader, will be present at this meeting.

Two demonstrations by the club members will be put on at the meeting, which ought to help stimulate more interest in demonstration work in the clubs. Remember the date and time, Saturday, April 19, at 1:30 p. m., and the place, the courthouse in Grants Pass.

Robert Wendt and Glen Halm of the Illinois Valley dairy club will give a livestock demonstration and two members of Grants Pass an economics demonstration.

Make your pennies work for you. Two of any item listed for the price of one plus 1 penny. Wednesday, April 30, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, May 1, 2, 3, with 250 bargains to choose from. Cave City Drug store, the Rexall store.

Mrs. J. M. Snook and Mrs. Agnes Yerke and little daughter, returned from a short vacation at the former's Pebble Beach home in Crescent City.
