

NEW POSTOFFICE, STORE AND RESIDENCE AT O'BRIEN FINISHED LAST FALL

Last fall, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Lawson built one of the nicest, cosiest and useful buildings in the valley. It houses the O'Brien postoffice, their grocery store and in the rear their residence. The building follows the Alpine design of the cabins and offers a striking picture. The building was built by H. M. Smith.

MASONIC TEMPLE AT KERBY HOUSES BLUE LODGE AND EASTERN STAR

The Masonic Temple at Kerby is the property of Belt Lodge No. 18, A. F. & A. M., and is one of the first substantial buildings built in the valley. It is a two-story concrete structure and was built in 1907. Belt Lodge and Western Star Chapter O. E. S. meet here every month. Adjoining the building is the Kerby postoffice. On the ground floor is the Wilson grocery owned and operated by Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Wilson.

VOLUNTEER FIRE DEPARTMENT DOES A WONDERFUL JOB

One of the institutions in the valley that is not so much appreciated until someone gets into fire trouble, is the Cave Junction Volunteer Fire department. Organized and financed by local men, they built a fire truck with a 210 gallon tank of water and a booster pump, and if the department is notified soon enough it can put out any ordinary fire. This truck and its personnel has put out four fires in Cave Junction that perhaps would have taken the town.

George W. Martin is the chief, and George Hicks the engineer in charge of the truck.

The fire house, which used to be next door to the theater, has been moved in the rear of the Legion hall, but has not yet been put in condition to house the truck. The department has a large siren that will be erected on a high pole and when there is a fire the first one to the truck will turn the siren on and give the alarm.

The truck will go any place in the valley it can be of service, and when there is a fire you should call by phone if possible and notify the chief or engineer. In the day time call Arnold's grocery or The News office and at night, get to the truck as soon as possible and notify George Hicks.

Gilbert Stewart of Medford is registered at the Waldo Motel and is in the valley to look after his mine, the Mark Twain, which he hopes to put into production soon.
