THE BRIDE LEARNS TO COOK
(See Recipes Below.)

EASY AS PIE

No sooner are you back from your honeymoon than the business of planning menus, marketing and cooking for two begins!

In your capacity as chief cook, you're sure to find the task of preparing three meals a day a real challenge. Of course if you've had little past experience in the culinary field, there'll undoubtedly be at least one batch of "heavy" biscuits, a "fallen" cake or two, and even burnt toast . . . but don't let mistakes bother you too much . . . and he'll soon be "crowing" about your So-o-o Good Meals!

Because I'm convinced that the ability to make really good pie is a highly desirable quality for any young woman to possess, especially a new wife, I'm presenting a few pie recipes for you to try in your leisure moments.

If he likes desserts at all (most men adore them), try your luck with lemon-chiffon, chocolate, rhubarb or even Spanish cream pie . . . And, if you're careful to follow the foregoing suggestions, he won't be able to resist that second piece!

I've captioned the column Easy As Pie . . . which perhaps gives an erroneous impression. Easy to eat, yes, but not always easy to make. Pastry is tricky, but once the technique of making it has been acquired, it isn't easily lost.

In making pastry remember these points: (1) unless you are making hot water pastry, have the ingredients for making pie crust cold; (2) cut shortening into the flour, using a pastry blender or fork; or, if you're an experienced cook, and work quickly, blending in the shortening with fingers is permissible; (3) add water sparingly, using only enough to hold the ingredients together; handle dough as little and as lightly as possible after adding water; (4) roll out the dough on a lightly floured board or on a heavy canvas; (5) cover the rolling pin with a child's white cotton stocking—with the foot cut off—and flour it lightly; and (6) place the dough loosely in the pan to help prevent shrinking.

Plain Pastry.

2 cups flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
2/3 cup shortening
Ice water (about 6 or 7 tablespoons)
Sift flour once before measuring. Sift together flour and salt. Cut in shortening with two knives or pastry blender, making coarse pieces. Add as little water as possible to make dough stay together. Divide into parts large enough to make one crust and roll out on a well-floured board with as little handling as possible.

I want to pass on to you newly-weds some tips for homemaking that have the approval of hundreds of cooks, mothers and housewives . . .

Tin or aluminum frying pans will wear better if cold water is not poured into them while they're hot.

Boiling a new rope clothes line for a few minutes in soapy water softens it and lengthens its life.

A round whisk broom serves as an excellent clothes sprinkler. It gives a fine spray, sprinkles evenly, and saves time.

Grease spots may sometimes be removed from wallpaper with a piece of blotting paper held against the spots with a warm iron.

In planning meals, bacon should be considered as fat rather than meat, because it contains so little protein.

fancy edge. Cut chocolate in pieces and melt over hot water. Beat eggs well, and add sugar, bread crumbs and melted chocolate. Mix well. Pour into the pie pan. Bake in a hot oven (375 degrees F.) for 20 minutes, or until filling is firm. When cold, sprinkle with chopped nuts. Spread with whipped cream and decorate with whole walnut kernels.

Just because it's summer, don't stop pie baking . . . merely change the kind of pie you serve. Spanish Cream pie has everything for a successful summer dessert—it's quivery, cool, delicately flavored.

To make the filling and pastry really boon companions, substitute orange juice for the water in the pastry. A half teaspoon of grated orange rind added to the flour for the pastry will give a special fragrance to it.

Spanish Cream Pie.

1 tablespoon unflavored gelatin
1/2 cup cold milk
1 1/2 cups scalded milk
2 egg yolks
1/4 cup sugar
1/4 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon vanilla
2 egg whites
1 baked pastry shell

Soften the gelatin in the cold milk 5 to 10 minutes. Dissolve over hot water, stirring constantly. Meanwhile, prepare a soft custard of the scalded milk, yolks, sugar and salt. Combine hot custard and hot dissolved gelatin. Cool slightly, add vanilla, then fold in the stiffly beaten whites. Chill until quite syrupy. Pour into pastry shell. Let set before serving. Yield: 6 servings.

Sometimes it is fun to change the flavor of pastry by adding an extra ingredient or two to the recipe. Cheese pastry, for example, is wonderful for apple pie. Grated cheese is mixed with the flour. A half cup of grated yellow cheese is enough for the standard recipe.

Spiced pastry is excellent for fruit pies, particularly peach, apple and apricot. Cinnamon and nutmeg, and perhaps a touch of cloves, are the spices to use. A teaspoon each of sugar and cinnamon and a fourth teaspoon of cloves will spice a batch of pastry. A little sugar also may be added.

Crumb Pastry.

2 cups crumbs, rolled fine or ground
1/2 cup melted butter
Blend butter and crumbs. Line pie pan by firmly pressing in mixture about one-fourth inch thick. Be sure to have it extra thick where sides of pan join. Bake in a 375- to 400-degree oven for 10 minutes. This pastry may be made of graham crackers, vanilla or chocolate wafers or ginger snaps.

And last but not least here's a recipe for the pie that still leads other meal sign-offs by a wide margin.

Apple Pie.

4 1/2 cups apples
1/4 teaspoon nutmeg or cinnamon
1 teaspoon butter
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 cup sugar
Line plate with pastry. Pare, core and slice apples. Mix sugar, salt and spice; put part of sugar in bottom of plate filled with apples. Cover with remaining sugar. Dot over top with bits of butter.

Moisten edges of lower crust; put on upper crust and press edges firmly together. Place pie on bottom shelf or rack in oven and bake in hot oven, 450 degrees F., for 10 minutes, then reduce heat to 325 degrees and bake until fruit is tender and juice begins to boil through perforations in crust.

Fashion With Family Likeness Much Smarter This Summer

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

WHAT started out a season or so ago and appeared destined to become a mere passing fad has developed into a highly important established fashion this summer. It is now recognized by leading fashion authorities throughout the country. The movement to which we refer is that of creating clothes alike for mother and daughter, also "sister" fashions, and brother and sister outfits, even Mr. and Mrs. costumes are included in the scheme of things.

A dress-alike foursome was shown in a recent style revue where an attractive young mother and her two pretty little daughters wore square-necked dresses of delft blue linen printed in navy and white, each with an apron in turkey red, the three outfits made exactly alike. In this mother-and-child fashion group along comes tiny Junior clad in red overalls with a sailor shirt in the same print as the frocks.

It is especially in the playclothes realm that costumes apparently emanating from the same family tree play up imagination to the nth degree of cunning design. What with the wealth of smart cottons and myriads of other intriguing washable weaves at command it is small wonder that designers are finding endless inspiration in devising family group fashions.

It is just such delightful ventures in creative costume design as the "like-mother-like-daughter" dress pictured in the foreground of our illustration that are causing a series of ohs and ahs. To visualize the full charm of this lovable twosome one must think in terms of pointsettia red crinkled crepe outlined with rickrack, for the frocks are fashioned of just that. With such adorable styles as these easily available this summer in smart specialty shops, shopping for play clothes becomes a pleasurable pastime.

A bit dressier with more of a garden party effect are the cunning sister outfits illustrated. In this instance little and big sister team in slub broadcloth (a most likable cotton fabric) of which both bonnets and dresses are made. The older little girl's frock is pale pink with printed dainty blouse. Little sister's is pale blue with blue printed blouse. Notice how cleverly the sleeveless dress waist of the dress is made detachable, via tab extensions that button on over the underblouse. This is a practical idea that mothers may want to copy when making little daughter's dresses, seeing that it is such a help in laundering to have skirt, blouse and overblouse separate.

For this fashion of mother-and-daughter together with sister playclothes that is so steadily growing in popularity, we would suggest using such smart and likable cottons as tiny or big plaids in seersucker, yarn-dyed striped pique in multicolors, chambrays in stripes or plain, denims, glazed chintz, waffle weave piques, dimities and plisse sheers in tropical flower prints, also quilted calico makes up effectively in little matching jackets to wear over summery frocks.

One of the most talked-of fashions of the present season is twin slack suits with bright blazer-stripe jackets. Mother and wee daughter in these twosomes attract pleasant attention wherever they go. Be sure to add sister bathing suits to little daughters' wardrobe of vacation clothes, made of crinkled printed cottons or wool jersey. As to Mr. and Mrs. they are choosing sportswear tweeds in matching checks for motorizing and outing excursions. (Released by Western Newspaper Union.)

Pigtail Calot

Provocative of a smile is this amusing and at the same time eminently practical hand crocheted pigtail calot. It is crocheted of heavy cotton rug yarn that is bolifast and beautifully washable. You can get it in lovely pastels or bright South American colors. Costs but a few cents for the material, and can be turned out all finished and ready to wear in a short time. Not much more than an hour to make it if you are a speedy worker. When your girl friends see yours they will all be clamoring for one like it. Get busy! This fad for the hand-crocheted pigtail calot is spreading throughout the teen-age group.

Colored Stockings For Summer Wear

Enter bright colored stockings, worn with gay prints, into the summer fashion picture. The latest move is to match the color of your stockings to the leading flower in your print. The vogue has just started but its future looks promising, in that it is being tried out in summer resorts with highly satisfactory results.

Latest prints have white grounds with yellow florals or with red or cerise or some one color and the idea is to match flower, gloves and hose. Startling innovation? Yes, but it is being done in smart fashion circles.

Silhouette Transformed By New Deep Armholes

Look for a new silhouette, it has arrived. The new deep armhole effect also sleeves cut-in-one with the yoke or bodice itself is bringing about a transformation in the silhouette. The likable part of this new technique achieves a classic simplicity of line that every woman seeks. More and more fashion is reminding us of the importance of this new trend. Watch for interesting style developments scheduled for the coming months.

Border Prints

Border prints are very smart and designers are handling them in intriguing manner. The borders are used for yokes, for midriff girdle insets and the print frocks with row upon row of the border arranged in tiers are very new. Pleated skirts play with the border effectively, too. Jacket edges finished off with border print look new and attractive.

SLIGHT MISTAKE

They boarded the Fifth avenue bus, a charming young lady and a handsome escort. Tenderly he assisted her as they passed through the doorway. The vehicle was jammed with other passengers and the escort looked anxious. Leaning forward he whispered to the young lady: "Can we squeeze in here, darling?" Every face in the bus was turned toward the pretty young lady and they noticed her blush, as she answered faintly: "No, dear, wait until we get home."

That Nagging Backache

May Warn of Disordered Kidney Action

Modern life with its hurry and worry, irregular habits, improper eating and drinking—its risk of exposure and infection—throws heavy strain on the work of the kidneys. They are apt to become over-taxed and fail to filter excess acid and other impurities from the life-giving blood.

You may suffer nagging backache, headache, dizziness, getting up nights, leg pains, swelling—feel constantly tired, nervous, all worn out. Other signs of kidney or bladder disorder are sometimes burning, scanty or too frequent urination. Try Doan's Pills. Doan's help the kidneys to pass off harmful excess body waste. They have had more than half a century of public approval. Are recommended by grateful users everywhere. Ask your neighbor!

It's A GOOD AMERICAN CUSTOM

on Independence Day began July 4, 1776, when the Declaration of Independence was signed. John Adams, a signer, said: "the day should be observed with hilarity and the setting off of fireworks."

It's also a good American custom to relax on the Fourth of July (and every other day) with a man-sized, mild King Edward, America's most popular cigar.

Benefits to Our Readers

THE PUBLIC nature of advertising benefits everyone it touches. It benefits the public by describing exactly the products that are offered. It benefits employees, because the advertiser must be more fair and just than the employer who has no obligation to the public. These benefits of advertising are quite apart from the obvious benefits which advertising confers—the lower prices, the higher quality, the better service that go with advertised goods and firms.
