Crescent City were visitors in Cave Junction for a short time last Sunday. They were on their way to Roseburg and Klamath Falls.

Postmaster L. E. (Ted) Athey attended the postmasters' convention in Bend Wednesday. M. C. Athey drove him to Bend Tuesday, they returning late Wednesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. James Dorrington of Denver, Colo., were week-end visitors at the E. O. Opple home in O'Brien. Mrs. Dorrington and Mrs. Opple are friends of many years standing.

Rev. C. G. Morris and daughter Anne left Thursday morning for a week session of the Epworth league institute down the Umpqua river from Roseburg. Miss Anne will be registrar of the camp.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Smith motored to Crater Lake last week and spent a very enjoyable trip, where weather was ideal and scenery beautiful. This was Mrs. Smith's first trip to the lake.

Miss Vera A. A. Miller of Montrose, C. H., has arrived to visit a month at the "Willadora" the guest of Dr. and Mrs. William A. Brown. Miss Miller is a teacher of history in the Los Angeles high school.

Mrs. George Sabin and Mrs. R. H. Hopper and children of Aberdeen, Wash., passed through Cave Junction last Saturday on their way to the Caves to spend a week.

Mrs. Hopper is Mrs. Sabin's daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Miller and family and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Everett of Michigan arrived at the Harry Mills home last Friday. Messrs. Miller and Mills are cousins and have not met since boyhood days.

Messrs. Ray Arnold and Albert Wade of Santa Barbara, spent several days last week at the E. L. Opple home in O'Brien. Piloted by O. W. Vogue they caught some very fine trout at Tannen lake. Much impressed by Josephine county they expect to come back again later and hope to buy a home.

Mrs. Clay Ramsey accompanied by Vivian Taylor, Aileen Whitehead and Mrs. E. E. Lewarten of Medford, left this week for Los Angeles where they will visit former residents of the valley, the H. M. Hayden family in Santa Monica and Mr. and Mrs. George L. Martin at Porterville, Calif. Mrs. Lewarten is a sister of Nat Woolley.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Grite and son Richard, of Portland, arrived here for a few days visit at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Ranyan. They will leave for their home the last of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Lew's and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hudron, finished moving to their new home, the old Shafe place, which Mr. and Mrs. Lewis recently purchased from Leon and Frances White of Medford. Joe said last week that as soon as he goes Grace's gold fish moved the ordeal would be complete.

Fay E. Diamond has invented a buckle that should make the ladies quite happy. If you are interested in buckles stop in at Mr. Diamond's jewelry shop, Cave Junction, and let him show you something entirely new.

Mrs. A. R. Lockwood of Upper Sucker creek brought in 14 rattles of testimony to the News office this week as evidence of the biggest reported rattlesnake kill of the season. The "animal" was three feet long and several inches thick.

Mrs. M. M. Bushnell of Santa Barbara, California, visited Friday
