For a decree of divorce forever dissolving the bonds of matrimony now and heretofore existing between you and the above named plaintiff.

This summons is published by order of the Hon. H. K. Hanna, Judge of the above entitled court dated August 2nd, 1941, ordering publication hereof once each week for four successive weeks.

Date of first publication: August 7, 1941.

Date of last publication: August 28, 1941.

W. T. MILLER, Attorney for Plaintiff. Postoffice address: United States National Bank bldg., Grants Pass, Oregon.

ing the field accessible to planes. Without them, the field would not have been completed for years to come.

The main speaker on the program was Major James Frankland, assistant regional forester of Portland. Major Frankland gave a very impressive dedication address and was roundly applauded.

One of the spectacular features of the program was the dedication of a plaque to General Billy Mitchell by the Cavemen, which was uncovered with a great talk given by Neil Allen, past state commander of the American Legion. We hope in a latter issue to publish in full Mr. Allen's address as it was considered a masterpiece on national defense.

After this ceremony, the airplanes took over. With several planes on the field, many availed themselves of the opportunity to go up in the sky to take a good look at the valley, and hundreds made the trip.

The committee in charge wants to warmly thank all the men who came with their planes to help the dedication, and especially those from Klamath Falls with seven planes.

The committee also desires to warmly thank all who worked and helped to make the dedication a success. Those who did yeomen work where they were not at all noticed, but whose cooperation collectively made the dedication the great success it was, are the great army that the committee wants to extend their heartfelt thanks. The list would include hundreds, and their work was magnificent.

Another institution that came to bat for the dedication was the Grants Pass Courier, who generously loaned the committee their loud speaking system, which was a necessity in broadcasting the talks. The entire valley appreciates this courtesy which was gladly loaned.

The closing event of the dedication was the banquet at the Oregon Caves Chateau, where 48 invited guests were seated to a marvelously fine banquet prepared by Richard Sabin and the Oregon Chateau staff. The banquet was the highlight of an evening's entertainment and many talks were made by Edward P. Cliff, Major James Frankland, E. P. Leavitt, V. K. Meedom of Crescent City, Ralph E. Luick of Smith River, and one of the guests of honor, Stewart E. Saunders, manager of Pan-American Airways. Most of the guests were accompanied by their wives.

The Cavemen took over in the final chapter of the banquet and as only the Cavemen can, made the banquet one to be remembered for a long time.

During the dinner, the entertainment provided by the Chateau personnel and the big bon fire program afterwards, were thoroughly enjoyed by those attending.

Blake Miller, chairman of the parade committee, wishes to take this means of thanking all those who took part in the parade and helped make it a grand success.

M. C. Athey, chairman of the dedication committee, wants to thank every member of the committee and everyone who so marvelously put their shoulders to the wheel that make us the talk of the state in the dedication of the airport. Also to Copco for the fine spirit of cooperation in loaning thousands of feet of wire and the expense of putting it up for this dedication. This was a contribution that was necessary for the success of the program and it is surely appreciated. Bill Moyer, Grants Pass manager, endeared himself to all who knows the amount of expense he went to, to give us this for a few hours service, at no expense to the committee.

And the general committee wants to warmly thank the people of Grants Pass for their splendid cooperation. Grants Pass came through a hundred per cent. Also thanks go to Crescent City and other communities for their help. To Gladys King and Paul Snyder for the use of the ambulance and station wagon and transporting airmen to meals and providing the same free of charge. To J. E. Hicks who stood under a leaking nozzle and held a hose for eight hours on the air field to wet it down from 12 midnight to 8 in the morning, cold and wet through, nothing but praise came from him and a willingness to do everything within his power to help. With such great cooperation it is no wonder the dedication was a huge success.

HILTON ON BOARD

Ben Hilton of Route 2, Grants Pass, has been requested by R. E. Brown, general agent of the Farm Credit Administration of Spokane, to represent that organization on the Josephine county agricultural defense board, it was announced in Spokane today.

This board has been established at the direction of the secretary of agriculture to coordinate activities of the department of agriculture that involve national defense and to coordinate these activities with those of other defense agencies in the field.

Mr. Hilton is vice president of the Medford Production Credit Association, a part of the Farm Credit Administration.

FRED GOES SWIMMING

One of the funny incidents of the week was a mishap that happened to Fred Kolb of the Cave City Coffee Shop. Fred was down to the Cave City Tourist park and Ralph Baumberger asked him to take a ride in one of the boats in the new lake Ralph has created out of the Illinois river. Fred nonchalantly stepped into the boat and went right on into the river. If you have a good imagination this would be about the conversation:

Fred — (Coming up out of the water) Blub—Blub—Hey get me out of this.

Ralph—What are you doing in there. I thought you were going boat riding. I didn't know you wanted to go swimming. Wait a minute, I'll go up and get you a bathing suit.

Fred—Come on back here and help me out of this.

Ralph—Oh, you don't want to go swimming? Well what are you doing in the water?

Fred—Never mind what I'm doing, help me out.

Ralph—All right, give me your hand, (and Ralph helped him out, but we wouldn't be surprised when he got him half way out that he didn't let go and let Fred go back into the river, but that's our guess.)

August 30 Deadline for 1942 Crop Insurance

With August 30 as the final date for taking out crop insurance on fall wheat, the state AAA office is staging a campaign throughout the state to acquaint all wheat growers with provisions of the new simplified crop insurance program.

Three major improvements in the 1942 program are being called to growers' attention. They are as follows:

1. Provision for payment of premium with a non-interest bearing note signed at the time of application. The note may be paid by the grower any time before August, 1942. After that date it will be deducted from his AAA conservation payment of wheat loan.

2. A single application form, executed by one signature, which insures all of the farmer's interest in the wheat crop.

3. Revision of premium rates by inclusion of recent crop history on the individual farm.

The following advertisement, which appeared in The News twice before the Grants Pass Glad show, was run in many newspapers on the Pacific coast recently. It shows what is being done by the Grants Pass Chamber of Commerce with an appropriation by the county for advertising purposes. Many other ads will appear at strategic times concerning the advantages and beauty of Josephine County, and it is the opinion of the Illinois Valley News that they are doing a splendid job, which will reap big dividends for everyone in the county.

Pay Delinquent Personal Taxes AT ONCE!

CHAPTER 389, Oregon Laws, 1941, effective June 14, 1941, requires that we issue warrants for collection of delinquent taxes on personal property.

Warrants are to be filed with the County Clerk, and entered in the Judgment Docket.

The amount of such warrant shall become a lien upon the title to any real property owned by the person against whom the warrant is issued.

The effect shall be the same as though the people of the County had recovered judgment against the person or persons so charged.

The process of issuing, serving and docketing warrants covering delinquent taxes on personal property shall be mandatory.

Therefore it is our unavoidable duty to insist that all delinquent personal taxes be paid without further delay, or satisfactory arrangements made to liquidate same.
