New Coffee Shop Opened in Kerby

This week, Mrs. Blanche Lackey of Kerby, opened a new coffee shop in Kerby under the name of the Do Drop Inn Coffee Shop.

The cafe is located next door to the Standard Oil service station of C. E. Johnson, and the building has just recently been built by Mr. and Mrs. Johnson of the Miners' Grocery.

The grand opening of the new coffee shop will be held Saturday, August 23 from 2 to 5 p. m. and the residents of the valley are invited to call and inspect the new cafe. Coffee and cake will be served.

Mrs. Lackey will specialize in steak and chicken dinners.

Pre-School Clinic At Kerby High

A pre-school Kerby clinic will be held at the high school building on Friday afternoon, August 22 at 2 p. m. A doctor and nurse from the county health department will have charge. All children entering the Kerby grade school for the first time this year are especially urged to come for this check up. Also younger brothers and sisters are privileged to take advantage of this clinic. The O'Brien children of this age are also invited to come. Children of the Rocky Dale district will have the same invitation.

Smallpox vaccination and diphtheria immunizations will be offered.

Lowell's Remodel Store in Grants Pass

The ladies' dress goods specialty store of Lowell's, 202 South Sixth street in Grants Pass, has recently remodeled the store and now has a more attractive store than ever, with new facilities that will delight most women buyers.

The most attractive features are three new dress fitting rooms which were constructed in the rear of the store and on the balcony, a new department, the "Birth to Six" shop, leaving the lower floor for more attractive showing of the new arrival of fall goods.

BLESSED EVENT

BORN—To Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Sowell of Cave Junction, at Josephine General hospital, last Saturday, August 16, at 2:45 p. m., a baby daughter, weighing six pounds one-half ounce. Both doing nicely.

4-H CLUB WILL EXHIBIT STOCK

Everyone, both children and parents, who are interested in the 4-H club work, are urged to be at the Jim Payne home Sunday, August 24, at 2:00 p. m.

The Caves Highway 4-H club is sponsoring a picnic to be held here at this time. Everyone should bring something to eat and their own dishes. The club will furnish ice cream.

At this event, the club members will have some excellent young dairy stock on exhibition. There will also be a judging demonstration where the 4-H'ers will prove to you that they really know their stuff.

Several of the top breeders of fine dairy stock in the county will be present at this gathering.

If you don't know what the 4-H club is all about or what it is doing for the boys and girls of the community, be sure and come to this picnic and learn about it first hand.

Write to your friends and tell them about the Miners' Jamboree and invite them to come.

ing that would help the parade. You may want to have a concession for a hot-dawg stand, or lemonade, or something. You may have an idea that is very good, but if you don't say something about it, it is no good. As we have said don't take up too much time, but let's have your help. Miners—bring in your samples. Ask any member of the general committee if you can't find Cecil and they will tell you what to do with them. If you want them returned they will be taken care of.

Blake Miller would appreciate any old-time relics that could be put in the parade. Anything that has wheels that will run, or horses that will ride. Tell him what you have and if he needs your entry he will be delighted to have your assistance.

We are scheduled for a great celebration with a carnival company that has five big rides for the fun and amusement of all. There will be a great number of new concessions that have never been here before, and the Jamboree grounds next to the American Legion hall is going to be taxed to the limit to give space to all the attention.

Write and tell your friends. Better still, send them The News, so they can see all the good things in store for our visitors.

COMMUNITY CHURCH CLIPPINGS (Contributed)

The attendance at Sunday School was 49 with one visitor. Collection was $1.96. Two new members were enrolled, Louella Mae Rondeau, and Loyal Green.

Rev. Gray preached on the subject, "The Christian's Heritage", taking his text from Eph. 1:11. Among other visitors at the church service were Mr. and Mrs. F. Beyersdorf, of the Central Christian church of Spokane, Wash.

The solo, "Somebody Cares," rendered so effectively by Mrs. John Dow was greatly appreciated. This newcomer, who so lately has come to our valley with her husband, is also giving of her talents in other beautiful ways, and this Mrs. Harry Mills knows perhaps better than any one else.

The Creche, which is conducted during the church hour for the younger children, is going good work, but they are much in need of pencils, crayolas and pictures for coloring, and would welcome any such contributions.

A group of the "Busy Bees" sang the chorus, "Love Lifted Me" at the Sunday school service.

The missionary society will meet for its all day meeting and covered dish lunch at the home of Mrs. Gray on Thursday, August 28, and to this gathering for work and sociability all ladies are welcome.

On Sunday evening a group of the church folk gathered at "The Willadora" for a vesper service of song. The guest of honor was Mrs. Lillie Peters, mother of Mrs. W. O. Burch, who on August 12, celebrated her 80th birthday. Her beautifully lengthening years reminds us of the lines of the renowned Edwin Markham, written on his 80th birthday:

"I am done with the years that were; I am quits.

I am done with the dead and old. They are mines worked out; I delved in their pits,

I have saved their grain of gold. Now I turn to the future for wine and bread;

I have bidden the past adieu. I laugh and lift hands to the years ahead—

'Come on—I am ready for you.'

A SURPRISE VACATION

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Wright were awakened at midnight Saturday night, August 9 with a "Hello, this is me" Virgil Brown; Victor sent me after you for a week's visit and vacation." He sent Mr. and Mrs. Wilder, friends of his to do the chores and look after the ranch. Vic sent them home Sunday, August 17 by his stepson Bo Tucker. The Wrights report a good trip and a fine time. They say Vic is a very busy man. Besides cutting 500 acres with his new combine of his own grain, he has 1200 acres to combine for his neighbors. If you want work in the grain or potato harvest, better go on over as "The harvest is ripe and the laborers are few." Write or call on Vic Brown, Route 2, Box 772, Poe Valley, Klamath Falls.

Now Ready For Your SHOPPING

The noise of our remodeling work and the debris strung through the store is past history, and we are now ready to meet our customers in a newly reorganized display section of our large stock of ladies' ready-to-wear garments of all kinds.

By pushing back a partition, room was made for three new fitting rooms and many new display racks necessary for our enlarged stock.

New goods are arriving every day, but the wise "early birds" will be interested in a group of better dresses, sport and dress coats, hats, sport jackets, fur chubbies, dressmaker suits, corduroy sport suits and the new fall Johansen shoes.

In our new department on the balcony, the "Birth to Six" shop for tiny tots will delight every mother. You'll adore the dainty decorations . . . and you can't resist the selection of needs for the "very young."
