Complicated Scheme
Wife—If a man loves his wife as much as she loves him, he will stop wasting his money on cigars if she asks him.
Hubby—Yes, but if his wife loves him as much as she ought to love a man who loves her enough to stop if she asks him, she won't ask him.

SAME THING

Daughter—I shall marry Perry Goodthing or nobody!
Mother—Well, if you marry Perry you'll marry nobody, I should say.

Only Fair
Then there is the story about the wayward cat. Its habit of coming in late usually resulted in a scolding from its mother. Finally the offspring could stand it no longer, and plaintively said, "For gosh sakes, Mother, can't I even lead ONE of my own lives?"

Greenhorn
Harriet—Would you refuse to go out with a man who had made just one mistake?
Mabel—Sure. Who wants a man with as little experience as that?

Hard Roads
"You should keep to the straight and narrow path."
"True. The journey of life, like every other journey, seems to be at its worst in the detours."

Answer
"What is the most curious thing about a fool?"
"De way he'll holler and git mad if you don't let him show off his misfortune."

To a Hammock
O, hammock, with a burden fair,
You truly are a hammer;
You swing away the moments glad,
The pendulum of summer.
