

New Fall Clothes Are Pretty But They Are Also Practical

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

IF YOU are enrolled at college, if you are a debutante, if you are a full-fledged socialite, or if you are a career girl, you will be going places this fall and winter, and that means pretty clothes and many of 'em.

The "trick" is to assemble a wardrobe of costumes that have the style-correctness and indefinable charm that will make you the reigning glamour girl in the smartly alert stadium group, at the college "prom," at afternoon tea or bridge. The illustration herewith is designed to offer suggestions for costumes that will do just that.

Wherever smart crowds parade into the stadium this fall you will find fragrant fresh flowers posed romantically on muffs and cuffs as well as on coat collars and revers, and on canes, if you please. Here's hoping your far-away soldier, or a doting parent at home will be wiring you one of the newest style corsages to wear to that football game.

If you are seeking ways to allot your clothes allowance wisely, we would suggest the purchase of a youthful-looking kidskin jacket such as that worn by the cheer-enthusiast seated to the left in the group. A flattering gray or beige fur like this will "go with everything," your sports frocks, your dresses for town wear and travel, or your new "date" dress.

It's simply perfect to wear to football games. As a background for a corsage of yellow chrysanthemums such as the girl pictured is wearing gray kidskin is the ideal answer. For an apropos ensemble, the streamers must carry out the college colors. Coach your florist beforehand to attach your college letter right in the heart of the flower as though it had grown there. The stunning hat that completes this costume is black with the new curtain drape that conceals the hair at the back in a soft line. The hunter's green frock of sheer wool, with tailored lines and nipped-in waist, as shown above to the right, is a smart choice to wear to the game and the tea dance afterward. A corsage of roses is matched to the rose petaled crown of the saucy pillbox hat. It is the very latest fashion to wear your flowers at the belt line, after the manner pictured.

One of the necessary luxuries of a debutante or fair college girl is a simple classic gown fashioned of a delectable pastel woolen. The styling of the pastel frock above to the left in the group is particularly attractive. There is restrained fullness at the front of the skirt. The bodice is beautifully detailed, with the new and popular slenderizing midriff effect. Pompadour hat and long suede gloves complete this charming "date" dress. Evidently, according to this picture, "he" wired "her" one of the extremely popular patriotic corsages of red roses, blue cornflowers and white carnation petals.

The fall and winter social whirl makes it almost imperative that every girl who goes places own a black velvet "date" dress. Black velvet is equal to any occasion. Below, to the right, you see a glamour dress on a glamour girl. The square-cut neck is extremely flattering. A stunning bracelet, a jeweled brooch, the new long gloves, a towering turban draped of cerise velvet done in the milliner's happiest manner, and an exotic corsage of rubrum lilies dramatize this "portrait of a lady" to the "nth degree."

New Fall Bags

Long and narrow, beautifully appointed with the "last word" in contrivances to make life easier by safeguarding your valuables, and taking care of your "hanky," your lipstick and other make-up essentials, the new bags are everything you want them to be in convenience as well as esthetic appearance. An oriental influence is reflected in the initials which take a distinctly Chinese slant on the bag shown at the top. Bracelet, earclips, and twin lapel bowknot pins matching metal add a cosmopolitan touch. The new black suede bag shown below has a pocket and smart tucked detail.

Wear a Collection Of Pins and Clips

If you wear your fancy jewelry clips and pins as fashion dictates you will look like a military heroine displaying a collection of honor medals. The latest is to wear, not merely a single clip or pin but a whole bevy of them. It works somewhat like the charm bracelet idea. You collect versatile clips and display them on your blouse or lapel. You can get twin clips, triplet, quadruplet and even quintuplet groups. This is especially so in regard to butterfly motifs. A flock of jeweled wings is often seen fluttering on the new costumes. Some of the clip sets have, say, three units which are held in leash with delicate link chains. Makes a stunning effect.

Enormous glittering flower sprays will be worn on fur coats this winter, or will be worn with the simple basic dark dress to take the place of trimming or other ornamentation. The return of long necklaces is also important jewelry news.

Luxurious Fabrics May Soon Be Harder to Buy

Fabrics used in the fall collections almost overawe one with their elegance. Some merchants say this is the grand climax before we settle down to utilitarian weaves, and that lavish silks will be less and less available. However, the present handsome silks are setting the pace for rayon weaves produced in our own country that will reproduce handsome failles, satins, brocades, and so on.

Stiff silk weaves such as failles, taffetas, tie silks, lustrous, firm satins, and rich velvets are linked this season to the new slim silhouettes and are also being made up in stunning costume and evening blouses.

THE PAPERS OF PRIVATE PURKEY

Dear Ma—

I got your clipping about 200,000 jeeps two be released by Christmas and you are no more anxious about me being one of them than I are. I wish I had helped out more at home so I could claim somebody was dependent on me without laughing. I have checked and double checked to see if I couldn't dig up some evidence of what a help I was to you and pop but I did not have no luck to speak of.

All I could get down on paper was these three cases:

1.—Once about three years ago when pop was sick ten days I took care of the furnace and chipped in about $4 to help pay family expenses. (This is subject to error. It may have been $4.50, but I kept no papers.)

2.—In 1938 or 1939 I forget witch when he was on a auto trip we had a blowout and I did not let you and dad get out and change the tire. I did it myself.

3.—Last year the radio went on the fritz just when you and dad wanted to hear some favorite program and I fixed it for you. Also I went to the delicatessen store for you a couple of times when dad was two tired.

I do not think this is enuff to get the army to send me home as a dependency case, so if you can think of anything let me know and you better make out a affidavits and have it sworn by a notary public as the officers is very suspicious.

The paper says some units will lose 30 per cent of their men through releases but if all the boys in my unit who are trying to get out are successful mine will lose at least 99 per cent. Otto Bixby's folks have dug up evidence that he is over 28 years old and that they put him down as 26 because they lived two years in Brooklyn witch don't count.

Otto also says his family is suffering without him as his mother can't carry up coal and wood three flights like she used to. He also says his sister has arthritis and can't mow the lawn, wash the flivver and do all the washing and ironing. Altogether his being away from home leaves the family in a awful fix he says.

Another boy in my outfit says he is needed right away at home as two new saloons have opened up near his house and his old man is less a help than ever. I am still trying to get out on the ground I am a hardship case and two new things happened by way of evidence this week. First I had two front teeth pulled the same day that we had steak for dinner. If that ain't a hardship I don't know what is. Next I am innoculated so many times that to look at me you would think woodpeckers had been working all over me. And Nellie Petersen ain't wrote me in over a hole week all of witch makes me feel more like a hardship case than ever.

Of course if was married I could get out of the army in the Christmas releases and I am now convinced that early marriage is a good thing for every boy. Not that I would be such a heel as to get married to dodge the draft, but I just wish I had got married to a nice girl four or five years ago when I had some fine chances. If I had my life to live over again I would get married by the time I was 18 and no later.

If I was anywhere near 28 I might stand a show of getting out, but unless you made a mistake in the berth certificates there is no hope that way. Could you check up all over again and be sure. I always used to hate to think of being as old as 28 or 30 but after a year in a army no age seems so swell, in fact with the world as cockeyed like it is today I would have no complaint if I was 50.

Well this will have to be all for now and do not worry as I am beefing just because it feels good and life in a army is not so bad when you get used to it.

Love, Oscar.

P.S.—I hear Mildred Donaldson has moved back into our neighborhood. Do you know her address?

Due to priorities, drug stores will have to cut by 15 to 25 per cent many of the items they now carry, it is predicted. Well, that's okay with us. We're tired of dropping into an apothecary shop for a pill and coming out with a roll of linoleum, a percolator, a wrist watch and a new painting for the hall bedroom.

Beloved Singer Pleaded For Mercy, Not Justice

The beloved Madame Schumann-Heink was a woman of rare charm and geniality. She was the first to make fun of her own shortcomings, and was often heard to comment good-humoredly on her decidedly matronly figure.

On one occasion, a fashionable portrait painter asked her to sit for her portrait. The plump opera star hesitated for a long while before making her decision.

"Don't be afraid, Madame," said the artist teasingly. "I'll do you justice."

"Ah," replied the prima donna, "it isn't justice I ask at your hands; it is mercy!"
