MEETING PROSPERITY

A book came to our desk recently and I am going to quote a paragraph. The idea is wonderful, especially during Thanksgiving and Christmas, but it should be carried and put into practice throughout the year. Here it is:

"There is one unfailling law of increase—whatever is praised and blessed multiplies."

Get it? Cut it out and paste it in your scrap book and keep it in your system for ever. It has always been a familiar saying—"Honey catches more flies than vinegar."

It is just as easy to say something nice that will make people happy as it is to say something that will hurt. Making people happy should be a habit, for it comes right back home with compound interest. "Mr. Prosperity" does not like selfish people and he does not like tattlers, gossip mongers or double-crossers. "... whatever is praised and blessed multiplies."

THE BUDGET COMMITTEE

Soon the second meeting of the budget committee will meet and this next session will be open to the public. We call your attention to the letter in another column sent to The News by a subscriber. The letter speaks for itself.

Speaking of the small salary raise for the employes in the court house, the letter tells us that the small raise would only cost the taxpayer 11c on a thousand dollars. The rising cost of living was no fault of the employes. Of course they knew what they were going to get when they applied for their jobs and were satisfied, but no one could reckon with the rapid rise in the cost of living, and it hasn't reached the peak yet.

We do know something about the photostatic machine the writer talks about for the clerks office. All instruments filed there have to be copied into books by clerks, under the present system. We all know the length of some of those instruments and that it takes a lot of time to copy them in the ledgers. The photostatic machine would do the job accurately, for it would photograph the instrument as it is, and do it in less time than it takes to tell about it. All progressive, business-like counties have this machine for the county clerks office. The budget committee in refusing to budget for this machine has not taken into consideration the saving to the county in the long run.

We are inclined to go along with our subscriber. We think he has said a mouth full, and the budget committee should also take some notice, at least, we think they should.

PATRIOTIC AND RELIGIOUS RALLY

(Contributed)

"Men and Missions Sunday" falls midway between Armistice Day and Thanksgiving. Its observance in the Cave City theater 3 p. m. Sunday, November 16, will be both patriotic and missionary. The service will be one of grateful thanksgiving for the freedoms in the American way of life and a challenge for their preservation. The purpose in "Men and Missions Sunday" as it is celebrated in tens of thousands of churches in America, is to enlist laymen in a more active campaign for winning America to Christ and His Church.

The program begins promptly at 3 o'clock. All residents in Illinois valley are particularly urged to attend.

NOTICE!

We will be closed all day Thanksgiving day, Cave City Coffee Shop.

Jane Withers In "A Very Young Lady"

The mischievous tomboy of last year has become the glamorous young lady of today. Jane Withers has really grown up so that she has a "crush" and is kissed for the first time on the screen in "A Very Young Lady" which comes next Wednesday and Thursday to the Cave City theater.

Blue denims give way to full-length organdy dance frocks in this film, centered about a girl's school. Jane's father who wants to make a well-mannered lady of her has sent her to the boarding school run by John Sutton.

A secret "crush" on Sutton and an equally secret kiss from Richard Clayton, one of the boys from the military academy across the road, almost finish Jane's finishing school education. The sympathetic advice of her beautiful teacher, Nancy Kelly, who is also secretly in love with Principal John Sutton, makes that advice doubly attractive.

There are tears and laughter, heart throbs and moonstruck glances as Jane grows up, but it's worth waiting for, especially to watch Jane make a grand entrance in her new evening gown with a corsage of orchids.

CHURCHES

COMMUNITY CHURCH NOTES

Sunday school attendance ran over 60 last Sunday with several new scholars and visitors. Collection was $2.19. Marjorie McKinnon was new scholar in Mrs. Iversen's class and Jeanne McKinnon in Mrs. Sherier's class, and we were glad to welcome again Mrs. Freeman and Rebecca after some weeks of absence. The new Senior Young People had seven present and expect to increase to double that number soon.

Attendance at church service was very gratifying and a number of new faces were welcomed, among them Mr. John Krauss. Mrs. Dow sang "I'll Go Where You Want Me to Go" and Mrs. Lee was again in her place at the piano. Rev. Gray preached an appropriate sermon on "Good Citizenship" telling what it means to ourselves, our community and our church. Christ taught respect to law, and our attitude should be loyalty to just ones, and the church of Christ has a very definite and vital responsibility to National Defense. One with God is a majority, and such examples as David, Gideon and Joshua were cited.

Next Sunday will be observed nationally as "Men and Missions Sunday" in all Evangelical churches, and the speaker for the morning will be Rev. William A. Brown, D. D. This observance is under the Laymen's Missionary Movement of the Federation of Churches. A cordial invitation is given to all.

The missionary society meeting this week was with Mrs. Bud Doney. The attendance at these gatherings is growing in interest and numbers. Mrs. Luther Sherier is the president, and all ladies are invited. Meetings are the second and fourth Thursdays, all day, covered dish lunch.
