Los Angeles, where they have been for the past week visiting Mr. Brown's brother, who was quite ill.

Returning from their hunting trip to Grant county last week were Loy Tucker, John Pickle, J. R. Tucker and Curly Smith. They all brought back a nice elk apiece.

Wm. Blancet has moved his family to their home on the Holland road which is under construction. Mr. Blancet was caretaker at the O. Lee ranch near the White school.

Miss Marie Winterton of Chicago is the house guest of Dr. and Mrs. William A. Brown at "La Casa Willadora". Mrs. Brown and Miss Winterton were formerly engaged in missionary work for Methodist women with headquarters in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Houck, former residents of the Illinois valley, but now large scale farmers of Klamath county, were week-end visitors at the Dave Webb home in Kerby. They own and operate a dairy equipped farm of more than 500 acres. Mr. Houck has 7000 sacks of potatoes in his cellar worth about $1.60 per sack and 600 tons of alfalfa hay in his barn. Some farming!
