Harold Bowerman was notified and immediately went to the scene of the accident.

The Famous Epitaph Of Kirby, Essex, England

The following words are taken from a 500-year-old tombstone in the Church of Kirby cemetery:

When pictures look alive
With moments free—
When ships like fishes
Swim beneath the sea
When men outstripping birds
Shall scan the sky
Then half the world—
Deep drenched in blood
Shall lie!!

PROPERTY SOLD TO CALIFORNIA PEOPLE

Olaf Larsen recently sold some of his lots to people expecting to come here and build and make their future homes. He just sold three lots on Caves highway to Mr. and Mrs. Percy Bracey of Riverside, Calif.

Mr. Larsen also sold two lots to Charles G. Bracey, of San Diego and son of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Bracey. The son was called south to attend to business affairs but will return in the near future. His parents will remain here.

New Red Cross Center For Kerby Workers

A group of 18 women met at the new Red Cross center in Kerby to roll compresses this week. The Rebecas have very kindly loaned their kitchen for these meetings, which will be held each Wednesday afternoon. It is hoped that all the women in the community, who possibly can, will turn out to help with this very necessary work.

Marriage of O'Brien Residents Revealed

The marriage of Miss Ruby Cornelia Hosford and Richard Peter Thompson, both of O'Brien, was revealed last week. The couple exchanged their vows January 6 in Vancouver, Wash. Mrs. J. B. Mack, niece of the bride, with Mr. Mack and baby daughter were present, coming from Longview, Wash., to attend the wedding. Rev. Paul Kunzman performed the ceremony at the parsonage.

Mrs. Thompson returned to her home in O'Brien to look after the shipment of her household effects and expects to return to Portland shortly where an apartment is being prepared for their occupancy in University Homes, St. Johns. Mr. Thompson has been in Portland several months where he is employed in the Oregon shipyards at S. Johns.

Mr. and Mrs. Thompson will be greatly missed by their many friends in the valley where they have lived for several years. Congratulations are also extended the happy couple.

62-Year-Old Woman Serves 24-Hour Shift At Air Post

The recent announcement that people are not responding to the call for volunteers to man the observation post here has brought to light the fact that Mrs. Ethel Banta, 62, chairman of the Illinois Valley Horseback Canoe unit, is also serving a 24 hour shift once a week at the observation post north of Holland.

Mrs. Banta must make a trip of 14 miles to reach the station and her hours extend from 4 a. m. one day until 4 a. m. the next.

When questioned as to whether such activity didn't tire her Mrs. Banta answered, "It makes me feel good inside to be able to help. I think the work part shouldn't enter into it if one can do something for her country."

OREGON CAVES OFFICERS RE-ELECT

TAX PROGRAM

Embracing plans recommended by Governor Earl Snell in his message, the legislative committees of the Grange and Farmers' Union are working on tax measures to fit wartimes. They state they will oppose any legislation which will reduce income tax rates or set up a sales tax of any kind. In their fight they will have the support of the lobbyists of the A. F. L., C. I. O. and the railroad brotherhood.
