

LETTERS

March 29, 1943.

Dear Editor:

Here is real news, good news for all in Illinois valley. Byron Gray is home to stay! I saw him at church Sunday morning. It was fine to see him once again singing in the choir.

But best of all, he is so happy to be home on his farm. The high salaried job he had in Los Angeles in his thinking does not compare with the possible rewards of life in the open country and the freedom and joy of serving the nation more acceptably in the most important of all war-time work: the production of food, food for the armed forces and food for the civilians as well.

Welcome home, Byron.

We hope your noble example will be followed by men all over the nation.

WILLIAM A. BROWN.

OFF IN A CORNER WITH PHIL SNORT

Dear Ed:

We have one more day to go and March bids fair to uphold the usual saying: "Comes in like a gentleman, goes out like a Hitler!" But we haint got no call to find fault with March. Right here in Elk valley, we have had 16 days of sunshine, 10 days of clouds and sunshine, and, so far, 4 days of rain, during March. Our morning temperature has averaged 38 for the month. Our coldest morning was 26 and our warmest 54. Sounds good for any country, don't it.

I have heard two versions of how come it got to be called: "It's the Climate." One version is that Jack Harvey said it; another is John Hampshire is to blame for saying it. Don't make no difference who done it, they haint no nicer climate for anyone to live in—if they can find something to

THE OLD JUDGE SAYS...

"I've been meanin' to ask you for the last couple of weeks, Judge, what you think of this prohibition talk that keeps croppin' up every so often."

"I've heard some of it too, Henry, and I feel like this about it..."

"It comes from a comparatively small group of reformers...the same type that plunged us into prohibition during the last war. And, as we all remember, into nearly 14 years of the worst crime and gangsterism this country has ever known. Everybody had all the liquor they wanted only it came from bootleggers at exorbitant prices and the government was deprived of millions and millions of dollars in taxes.

"It seems to me, as I told my Congressman down in Washington last week, that we've got all we can do here at home to help win this war without wasting time arguing about things we know, from sad experience, won't work."

Conference of Alcoholic Beverage Industries, Inc.

live on. Beats tarnation how much a feller can go without if he has to. Take coffee, fer instance; just seorch wheat, make you some drink, tell yourself that it's coffee and I'll be hanged if in an hour or two you could tell if you had had coffee or not. Take us critters here in Elk valley; we goes over to the Model Grocery, buys a sack of bran and makes ourselves some mush. We gits some oleo down to Balzke and makes some brown gravy; we mixes the mush with the gravy, then we gits ready to go to town. You don't hafter wait 'till it kills you before you like it. Besides that, you don't hafter go thru any reducing exercises; you just bound to keep that nice, slim waist. Say, girls, why don't you try it?

Well, after I reads what Eddie Rickenbacker said about what our boys had to go through, in the south seas, I'm dern willing to shorten my railens and tighten my belt. Fact is, I don't care a whoop if they start to ration:ng bran and brown gravy, but fer the love of Mike don't let 'em take oleo away from us. Whatever we has to eat, let us have enuff grease to slide it down.

I puts in lots of time thinking about all our boys in the army. I wonder how my friend, Col. Whitesell, is getting along? Hope he's happy and hearty.

Wasting no time after taking the oath of office, Chester C. David last Monday swung into action as the nation's new food administrator. He will confer in the near future with President Roosevelt as well as with the national farm leaders.
