"I DOOD IT" OR DID YOU?

Did you send in a name for our grocery store in Kerby. We want the community to name it, and there is a brand new five dollar bill for the one who suggests the best name.

This contest closes Saturday evening, January 29th, so you better hurry with that name. Mail it to us at Kerby, or better, bring it to the store and look us over.

I'VE FREED A MARINE TO FIGHT! You can do it, too!

As a Marine, the most important and inspiring job of your life lies ahead. The achievements of your organization are written, and are being written, on history's most glorious pages.

Your Country and the Marines need you, and this is a challenge to your highest ideals of womanhood. Pay is good, even compared with high civilian wages. Lodging, food, travel expenses and handsome uniforms ($200 to $250 worth) are included.

If you're not already working on a war job, call, 'phone or wire the nearest Marine Recruiting Office.

Room 210, Stewart-Drew Bldg., 731 Main Street, Klamath Falls, Oregon.

THE MARINES, TOO, DEPEND ON GREYHOUND

Like men and women in all branches of the armed forces, the Marine Corps Women's Reserve depends on Greyhound for transportation. Greyhound buses serve Camp Elliott, San Diego, and other Marine training centers, as well as Marine bases from coast to coast. Other special services are also performed by Greyhound, often on a moment's notice. For example, buses are often requisitioned from regular schedules to transfer wounded between hospitals. In spite of shortages of buses and experienced personnel, the whole Greyhound organization is concentrating its efforts and resources to provide adequate transportation for all who must travel.
