SUMMONS

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE STATE OF OREGON FOR THE COUNTY OF JOSEPHINE.

Aubrey C. Hamrick, Plaintiff, vs. Louise Rebekah Hamrick, defendant.

In the name of the State of Oregon: You are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled suit within four (4) weeks from the date of first publication of this summons which date of first publication is March 16, 1944, and if you fail to so appear and answer within the time aforesaid Plaintiff will apply to the said court for the relief prayed for in the complaint herein, to-wit: For a decree dissolving the bonds of matrimony now and heretofore existing between plaintiff and defendant, and decreeing plaintiff an absolute divorce from the De-

VICTORY GARDEN WORK PRAISED

William M. Jeffers (right), president of the Union Pacific Railroad and chairman of the Industrial Advisory Garden Committee of the National Victory Garden Institute, presents the Institute's plaque to H. D. Collier, president of Standard of California, for the oil company's outstanding work in the Victory Garden movement in 1943. The presentation took place in New York. Collier assured Jeffers Standard had an even broader War Garden program this year.

OFF IN A CORNER WITH PHIL SNORT

Dear Ed: We have a bouncing little girl that can coo and goo and splutter, sigh and cry and blink her eye and many noises utter, so we've named this little tot Oleo. 'cause we haint got any but her. So me and Kate have set up late to pen these lines to you, a word or so, about Oleo so you will not fret and stew. She came to bless our home I guess, the finest thing we ever had; a beauty, too, and I tell you she looks just like her dad. She's not big, this little sprig and not so blooming small, from morn 'til night she's just all right, you never hear her squall. Now if you are half the friend that you pretend, you'll don your coat and lid, crank up your car and come up hyar and see what Katydid. PHIL.

pendant, and such other relief as may be proper and equitable herein. This summons is published by order of the Hon. H. K. Hanna, Judge of said Court made and entered March 9, 1944, ordering publication hereof once a week for four (4) successive weeks. JAMES T. CHINNOCK, Attorney for Plaintiff.
