General And Adjutant - Coming Here

Brigadier-General Ralph P. Cowgill and Adjutant-General R. F. Olson will be in Cave Junction Friday night to inspect Co. A, 18th battalion, Oregon State Guard, according to a dispatch received by Capt. Ralph Baumberger the first of the week.

Adj. General Olson has just been appointed to his post, having served overseas with the old Oregon National Guard, now the famous 41st division, and at a recent meeting of the Oregon State Guard officers of the Portland area, the adjutant said:

"It will be my goal to help make the Oregon State Guard as outstanding an organization as was the 41st division, when it was one of the nation's top ranking national guard outfits and one of the first to be called to federal service."

This will be a great night for the local company. Captain Baumberger has developed one of the best outfits in the state, and it has received very little notice from the officials because of the lack of material available by the nation and state. What material was on hand went to the larger areas while the local company maintained its high rating in spite of all the difficulties.

Company A has shown a greater spirit of cooperation with the State Guard than most of the other companies. Its attendance is one of the best in the state, and when the general and his staff sees what this company has done, at their own expense, we are in hopes that some recognition will be given Captain Baumberger and his company.

It is not out of reason to expect that a state armory could be built Margaret Sullavan, an Army nurse in Cave Junction to house the lofor duty. cal company, which is becoming more important as the months go by. The state officers are urging that all companies maintain their that all companies maintain their strength and even go out and get Dairymen

"GUADALCANAL DIARY" COMING SATURDAY, SUNDAY

Guadalcanal, a name virtually unknown in America two years ago, but today as familiar as Kalamazoo, Walla Walla and Brooklyn, is destined to rank in Marine history with The Shores of Tripoli and The Halls of Montezumafor it was there that America first tasted victory and the Japs first swallowed defeat.

The dramatic story of this first offensive against the Nips comes to the screen of Cave City theater Saturday and Sunday.

Wisecracking to the crack of snipers' bullets, literally thumbing their noses at desperate odds, the Marines-as played by Lloyd Nolan, William Bendix, Richard Conte and Anthony Quinn, with Preston Foster as the chaplain. Father Donnelly-crash through in pulsepounding fashion in the most thrillingly human story to come out of the Pacific.

"CRY HAVOC" WEDNESDAY. THURSDAY, AUG. 23, 24

A realistic and gripping drama dealing with the heroic behavior of thirteen women who remained on Bataan during General MacArthur's delaying withdrawal to aid the wounded soldiers shows at the Cave City theater next Wednesday and Thursday. The film "Cry Havoe" is based on the successful stage play of the same name and stars Margaret Sullavan, Ann Sothern and Joan Blondell.

During the evacuation of Bataan the gallant Americans and Filipinos are under constant Jap bombardment. Even the hospital is fair game for Jap bombs. Supplies of food and munitions are scarce. The hospital is so understaffed with nurses that Dr. Fay Bainter sends her lone nurse's aid, Marsha Hunt, to town to ask for volunteers. Marsha returns with nine girls, all from different walks of life and with divergent tastes. They report to Smitty, played by

Hospital Association Organized

Last Friday afternoon, the board of directors of the old Blue Cross hospital plan met in the county court house and organized number of friends and neighbors their own Josephine County Rural Health Protection association, divorcing themselves entirely from the Blue Cross organization.

At the meeting of the board, with Judge Johnson and Commissioners Robinson and Fredrickson and W. E. Moore, manager of the Josephine County hospital, all the details were worked out whereby a local association would be the answer to hundreds of families and individuals who want hospital protection for themselves and their families. The result of the meeting was the immediate adoption of a new set of by-laws and it was voted to incorporate the associafor the protection of county residents.

Earl Reinhart, chairman of the board of directors, is president of Mrs. Laque Youngblood and Mr. the new association with Mildred Norman, vice president; Josephine Powers, secretary-treasrer and the following board members: Victor Boehl, M. C. Athey, Estella Manfull, and Mrs. Sara Wertz, formerly with the Farm Security assocounty supervisor helped with the new organization and in the future will give it every assistance in their power.

The newly-formed association is the outgrowth of a year's experience with prepaid hospital care under the Blue Cross organization with which the local association is no longer affiliated.

another treatment would help her. About 2 o'clock Saturday morning, the residents of Cave Junction were startled with the Redwood Ranger station siren giving two loud signals that something was wrong, and on looking at the sky the populace saw that the Renfro mill was a mass of flames. The mill was completely destroyed.

Destroyed

One of the first eye witnesses was Howard Bearss, Standard Oil distributor for the valley, who lives across the street from the Standard Oil company's warehouse and in direct view of the mill. Howard's dog came to his bed and gave and changed the rest of the crew one of the most peculiar yelps, and around. Didn't do too bad. Won't Howard was awakened at once, know the results. About the same time Howard was awakened, Mr. and Mrs. Bowerman's daughter trudged up stairs to their bedroom and said she thought the mill was on fire. Mr. Bowerman gave one look and half dressed gave the siren signal above mentioned. He then ordered the entire personnel of the Redwood Ranger station and its equipment into action.

The smoke jumpers laid a hose from the station pump to the mill was 44 minutes. The best averand had water on the flames in a age in two days of testing. The letter does not propose to take the place of letters from home. Don't get the idea that this letter will tell all the little details of your home life and what is going on in the community. It will only give a slight glimpse of men and women the boys and girls in the service know or have heard about, and what they are doing.

It will be a welcome contribution from home to those in the service and on another page you will find a boxed ad, and if you will fill in the name of your friend or relative and send to the Grants Pass and Josephine Chamber of Commerce, Grants Pass, they will do the rest.
