Canning Sugar Allotment Cut

An order reducing allotments of home canning sugar from 15 lbs. to 10 lbs. per person was issued this week by Charles R. Baird, OPA Regional administrator.

The order is effective immediately and will continue indefinitely during the present emergency sugar situation, Baird said.

It applies to California, Arizona, Nevada, Oregon, Washington and northern Idaho.

"The order was necessary to assure every customer an equal share of the curtailed sugar supply and to prevent possible complete suspension of home canning rations," Baird said in a statement.

He also praised Pacific Coast housewives for their patriotism and fair play in applying for canning sugar, explaining that during 1944 this region applied for less than 50 percent of the national per capita average, despite the fact it is a major fruit and berry producing area.
