BOYS MEET AGAIN FROM OKINAWA TO GRANTS PASS STORE

From a hospital ship at Okinawa to a department store in Grants Pass may seem a long way to most of us, but to Philip Bureau, Grants Pass boy and John W. Isabell of Alabama, it's just another coincidence of war.

When the two men met in the Golden Rule store last Monday afternoon it was the first time they had seen each other since Bureau gave a blood transfusion to Isabell aboard a hospital ship at Okinawa shortly after Isabell had been wounded in action.

Isabell, on furlough, is here with his wife, the former Jean Higginbotham of Grants Pass.

Already three weeks time has been lost by loggers in the Tillamook burn area. How happy the Japs must be at the careless persons who caused these fires to start. Don't be a Jap supporter—don't let fires get started. A fire that doesn't start doesn't have to be fought. Keep Oregon Green.

If you work in the woods, be careful with your fire—because you know how much a Tillamook forest fire costs the state. Don't throw cigarets away. Be sure you grind them out in mineral soil. Every logger should be a loyal booster for Keep Oregon Green.

Mrs. Ed DeGrasse is visiting relatives in Seattle and Portland.

On the Pacific coast prune crop prospects are slightly above average and much better than last year, but considerably smaller walnut and filbert crops are in prospect than last year. Including almonds and pecans, the national crop of tree nuts was forecast about the same as 1944.
