Locals

H. E. Budd spent Monday in Grants Pass on business.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Darger were in Grants Pass last Monday shopping.

Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Lee left for Los Angeles Saturday morning with a load of Christmas trees.

We were glad to welcome another returning veteran this week when Norman Eckett returned from the European area.

Emil J. Prucha contributed 150 Christmas trees off his ranch, the Silver Bowl, on the Waldo road to the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Dr. and Mrs. E. H. Lindsey arrived from San Francisco where they have been for about a year. They plan to stay here.

Word has been received by Mrs. Badden that Bert Badden is to be sent to the T. B. hospital at Denver, Colo. for observation.

Lee Hassler, Y. J. C. spent a few hours at his home in Kerby last Wednesday. He left Thursday morning for his ship at San Francisco where he expects to be shipped out soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh H. White of the Redwood Ranger Station purchased one of the first two one-half-ton Dodge pickups that was delivered to Carner's Dodge Agency of Grants Pass.

Sgt. Edwin W. Lindsey arrived home Monday after receiving his discharge. He will stay here until after the holidays then return to his old job at Oakland as accountant at the navy yard.

Hervert Allen White, GM 2/c, arrived Sunday night to visit his brother, A. O. Strong of O'Brien. He will stay until after Christmas then return to his base at San Pedro.

A regular "jam session" was held at the Coffee Shop last Friday night when our local orchestra met there to practice. Luckily the roof was still on when they broke up at 1 a. m.

William Blanset of the merchant marines came home on leave last

What's that about the sound? Now don't get any wrong ideas—this isn't one of those blah-blah pix that talks itself to death. It's full of action and gun-totin', so who cares whether anybody says anything or not.
Don't forget, you've got a date with ANNIE next week at
