"Just a New Year's Thought"
(By the Selma News Reporter)
Never a New Year commences
And never an old year ends,
But someone's heart is warmed and cheered
Remembering treasured friends.

And once again let's realize
How much, each season through
Our lives have been enriched and blessed
By friends sincere and true.

Several Aberdeen Angus registered calves have been sold this week from the Deer Creek Ranch to various girls and boys of the community for 4-H Club stock. Carmelitta Krauss was among one of our local girls to purchase one.

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Gregg and Mr. and Mrs. Earl King and Lenita Johnson were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Breazeale and daughters on Christmas Day.

Fritz Krauss had a narrow escape Saturday morning while sawing wood with a drag saw. The dogs worked loose and the saw struck Mr. Krauss across the top of the head cutting a gash that required four stitches to close. His sons, Ernie and Bill probably saved his life by being near by and coming to his rescue by shutting off the saw and lifting the frame off Mr. Krauss which he held up off himself until they released him. He was taken to Grants Pass for treatment by Mrs. Krauss.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Bergmann, newlyweds, were given a real old fashioned charivari Sunday night at the home of Mrs. Bergmann's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lew Hammer, where they were spending the night after returning from their honeymoon on the coast. The Bergmann's will be leaving soon for Corvallis where they both will attend Oregon State College.

Mr. and Mrs. Loy Tucker arrived in Selma Monday morning. They left here a few months ago to go to Alaska to make their home, but say Oregon looks best after all, and that the poor people here live better than the rich do in Alaska.

Marvin Prentice has received his discharge from the U. S. army and is here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Prentice and sister Mildred. A brother John, who is

"Furniture You'll Admire at Prices You'll Appreciate"

THE OLD JUDGE SAYS...

STEVE: "How was the hospital dinner, Judge? Sorry I couldn't get there."

OLD JUDGE: "Very interesting, Steve. One of the doctors on the staff read a paper on the research work that is going on at one of the big universities where they are studying chronic alcoholism."

STEVE: "I'd like to have heard that, Judge."

OLD JUDGE: "He pointed out that approximately 95% of the people who drink do so sensibly. Only 5% abuse the privilege oc-asionally and included in that 5% is the very small number known as alcoholics. Then he quoted a doctor from a famous university who said 'Alcoholics are sick persons and, if treated as such, may be cured.' Alcoholism, he said, is not caused by alcohol but by deep-rooted emotional derailments which can be prevented by education and often cured through modern psychology!"

STEVE: "That's the most sensible approach to the problem I've heard."
