Red Square
Red square in Moscow was long the place of public executions. It became the great trade center, a market or bazaar in the heart of European Russia, to which came Russian merchants over the several roads that converge on Moscow, and by the river Moskva. The waters of this stream flow along one side of the Kremlin and reach the Volga through the Oka river.

Institutional Employees
About four-fifths of the state governments pay a basic cash salary plus maintenance for institutional employees; the practice in cities and counties is divided equally between giving employees full or partial maintenance in addition to a cash wage, or giving a gross salary and deducting charges for items taken.

Children's Safety
Never leave small children alone in the bathroom and keep candy-coated laxatives and pills beyond their reach. Even headache tablets taken in large quantities can have serious results. Discard used razor blades in closed container where children cannot find them.

Dairy Co-ops
Dairy farmers, whose marketing co-ops according to one tabulation, handled a business volume of $1,203,000,000 during the 1943-44 season, now control 75 per cent of all fluid milk marketed in the United States.

Wide Use for Ramie
Today, ramie, which resembles fine silk, is found in airplane and parachute cloth, typewriter ribbons, currency papers, undergarments, hosiery, raincoats, surgical dressings and upholstery fabrics.

Potato Feed
Raw potatoes which New England dairymen are experimenting with as cattle feed should be fed at the rate of 15 to 25 pounds a day as soon as the cow has become accustomed to them.

Moisture-Proof Bag
If you use a moisture-proof bag to keep leafy vegetables fresh in the refrigerator, be sure to wash it well with warm water at least once a week.

Boiled Potatoes
Eating boiled potatoes, skins and all, gives extra returns in food value because of the good measure of vitamins and minerals in the skin and directly beneath it.

Beaver Value
According to the New York state conservation department, the beaver in only 10 of the Empire state counties represents a capital asset of $3,250,000.

Late Pastures
Late pastures lose as much as 20 per cent in total digestible nutrients, and there is an even greater drop in digestible protein.
