Locals

Mrs. Sam Bunch of Bridgeview was shopping in Grants Pass on Monday.

W. E. Graning was in the county seat on business the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Sconce of Takilma were business visitors in Grants Pass the first of the week.

E. A. Brillhart and family visited Mr. and Mrs. Stengel in Selma recently. Mr. Brillhart is a brother of Mrs. Stengel.

Mr. and Mrs. William J. McLean of Kerby were transacting business in Grants Pass this week. Mrs. Curley Baird of Takilma also made the trip with them.

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Pritt of Turlock, California, are visiting in the valley as guests of the Ray Nickersons, living on the former C. G. Sawyer ranch.

Mrs. J. S. Whitehead and her recently born baby girl came home last Sunday from the Josephine General Hospital. Mrs. Whitehead and baby are doing nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Beam and the latter's mother, Mrs. S. M. Payne, and Mrs. Dicie Rose, all of Crescent City, were visiting relatives and friends in the valley last week.

Captain and Mrs. Oscar Reich visited recently at the home of Charles Hoppe and family. Captain Reich is on terminal leave but reported back to the east coast for his discharge.

Mrs. Glenn Marshall returned from Los Angeles last Friday, after a stay of a few months. She was called south due to the illness of her mother, who passed away several weeks ago.

Raymond Proctor, who underwent a major operation in the Josephine General Hospital two weeks ago, was brought home last Wednesday by Mrs. Proctor, who made the trip to Grants Pass to bring her husband home.

Pierce Auto Freight now has local headquarters for their office at the York's Motel Grocery. E. H. York will be in charge and is in a position to give excellent service along your shipping and receiving line.

Mr. and Mrs. William Allison of Pullman, Washington spent the past week in Holland. Mrs. Allison is a sister of Harry Dufner who is mining on Althouse creek. Mr. Dufner came down from his mine and spent a few days at the Holland hotel visiting with them.

Art Dedrick of Selms returned Saturday morning from Astoria, where he has been receiving medical treatment for the past four weeks. He states he has completely recovered from his ailments and is feeling great. Mrs. A. D. Anderson of the Log Cabin Camp accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Dedrick to Medford on a shopping trip the first of the week.

Washington Letter

Not seek reelection and would retire from Congress that we have at least two excellent magicians in the House of Representatives—one Republican and one Democrat. Fritz Lanham is positively a genius as an amateur magician. I have seen him do his act, and I believe he is far better than most professionals. Equally good is Congressman Paul Shafer of Michigan. Although not a member of Congress, Carl D. Shoemaker, also an excellent amateur magician, has been closely identified with the work of Senate Committees for a number of years. Carl Shoemaker has done his act for the Oregon State Society and numerous other groups. He is a former Oregon man. His brothers, S. J. Shoemaker and Dr. B. R. Shoemaker live in Roseburg.

1947 AGRICULTURE YEARBOOK
 The 1947 Agriculture Appropriation Bill, now pending before Congress, includes an item for a new Agriculture Yearbook which will be known as the 1943-47 edition. The title will probably be "Science and the Farmer" and will cover recent developments on such subjects as animal breeding, nutrition, plant breeding and dis-
