Mr. and Mrs. William Jameson Mrs. Vollmer's mother, Mrs. E. J. iting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Smith on the Caves Highway.

Brother Visits Mrs. Hall

James V. Nash and son Jimmy were visitors this week at the Kerby home of Mr. and Mrs. Ira S. Hall. Mr. Nash, Mrs. Hall's brother, has recently completed 20 years as head basketball and track coach at Roosevelt High school in Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. George Harris of Hawthorne, California, were recent visitors at the E. F. Hamilton home on the Redwood Highway. The Harrises were on their way to Eastern Oregon by way of Portland and the Columbia River Highway.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hines of Astoria, formerly of Cave Junction, send their greetings to all friends in the valley through Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Smith who just returned from a visit to the Hines'. Mr. and Mrs. Smith bought a new 1946 Chrysler sedan at Astoria.

Week End Visitors

Mr. and Mrs. J. Wilson of Fresno, California were visitors at the Harry O. Smith home last week end. Mr. Wilson is district manager of the Fresno Power Co., and was combining business with pleasure on their trip through California and Oregon.

Ashlanders Here

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Wheeler of Ashland were visiting relatives and friends in the valley over the week end.

See Caves, Crater Lake

Mrs. Nettie Shade, Mrs. Alice Colby and daughter Marianna of Oakland, visiting at the Shade home in Kerby, were visitors at the Marble Halls of Oregon last Monday, and Crater Lake Tuesday. They are well pleased with the Illinois Valley and the county.

If you're a sportsman be a sportsman all the way. Use plenty of water to drown out that campfire and don't smoke when in the woods. Keep Oregon Green.
