FIVE YEARS AGO:

(August 28, 1941)

Elva Messenger tallied more than a million votes to cop the honors as queen of the Miners' jamboree. The jamboree is scheduled for the Labor Day holiday. Final preparations have been completed and the stage is set for a gigantic celebration.

The Illinois Valley Garden Club held its August meeting at home of Mrs. Al Breech at the state line.

Mrs. Mildred Tilley has leased the Owl Cafe and is now open for business.

Newlyweds Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Boyd were honored at a charivari at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Boyd.

Ralph C. Clyde, Portland City Commissioner, paid a visit to the Illinois Valley this week.

Fred Krauss was the honored guest at a party celebrating his 75th birthday anniversary at Selma Friday.

ONE YEAR AGO:

(August 30, 1945)

Final plans have been completed for the big community picnic held under the auspices of the mill workers union Labor Day at Gray-back Camp.

James E. Maxwell, national housing representative in Portland, this week announced the granting of 15 priorities for homes in the Illinois Valley.

The local State Guard unit, under Capt. A. N. Collman, is preparing for a federal inspection scheduled for early fall. This will be the first inspection of the company.

Rose L. Sherier, Cave Junction, died August 28 at the Josephine General Hospital.

Glenn Morrison Post No. 70, American Legion, held a special meeting Tuesday night to choose delegates for the coming convention at Portland. Blake Miller, Les Henry and Elwood Hussey were selected as delegates and C. Y. Arnold, Fred Rout and George Bonner as alternates.

'LOST WEEK END' JUBILEE FEATURE AT LOCAL SCREEN

"The Lost Week End," co-starring Ray Milland and Jane Wyman, playing Sunday and Monday at the Cave City Theater, is one of the most unusual and daring films ever made.

The story concerns the experiences of a sensitive, intelligent man during his five days' abandon to an insatiable hunger for liquor. Devotion of his sweetheart, patient understanding of his brother can keep him from going off the deep end into an abyss never before interpreted on the screen. It is not until he sinks to the depths of degradation that he finds himself.

Wednesday and Thursday Eddie Bracken and Veronica Lake are teamed in "Hold That Blonde" at the Cave City Theater. The story concerns the doings of a rich kleptomaniac who always gets into trouble when he is caught putting things back he unwittingly lifted.

—Keep Oregon Green—
