Vets Still Have Time For U. of O. Winter Term

Veterans who plan to attend the university during winter term and who have not already been admitted, are urged to send in their credentials as soon as possible. When they have been cleared for admittance they can apply for housing, which will be made available by the completion of the second of the large dormitories for single veterans.

Earl M. Pallett, assistant to the president, said that room for at least 250 more men is available. However, immediate action is necessary, as applications are arriving by every mail. He suggested that veterans who have their credentials in contact Mrs. Genevieve Turnispeed, director of dormitories, to assure housing in the new dormitory unit.
