SEASON'S GREETINGS!

THE OWL TAVERN

NEW YEAR'S DAY is more generally celebrated throughout the world than any other holiday despite the fact that the new year does not begin January 1 in many countries.

Advent of the new year is hailed universally with good will, celebrations, hospitality and, in many countries, with an exchange of gifts.

Origin of the New Year's celebration is lost in antiquity. About 3,000 years before the birth of Christ the people of Babylonia kept a New Year's festival which lasted for 11 or 12 days.

In the days of the Roman Empire the year had only 10 months, beginning with March.

When the months of January and February were added to the calendar, January 1 was designated as sacred to Janus who, according to mythology, had two faces. Romans believed Janus looked backward
over the past year with one face and turned the other face to the future. When the Romans became Christians, the festival still was kept although it was observed as a day of prayer and fasting.

The modern trend of festivities and merrymakings to herald the new year has been in vogue for three or four hundred years. In America and throughout most of the world celebrations begin on New Year's Eve.

New Year Marks the Birth of Great Men

JANUARY 1 has marked the birth of no less than three prominent Americans who have played a vital role in the development of their country.

Of the three, Paul Revere is the most famous. Born in 1735 to a French goldsmith named Rivors, who had changed it to Revere, Paul followed in his father's footsteps to become one of the leaders of the metalware industry in the infant republic. But his chief distinction, of course, lay in his historic midnight ride of 1775 to warn the New England countryside that the Redcoats were coming.

"Mad Anthony" Wayne, one of the most colorful figures in American history, was born on New Year's Day in 1745 in Chester County, Pa. A relentless and aggressive fighter, he distinguished himself at Brandywine, Germantown and White Marsh in the Revolutionary war, and then aided in subduing the Indians in the west to permit the settlement of the new country beyond the Alleghenies.

NEW YEAR'S Day, 1752, Betsy Ross was born Elizabeth Gris-com in Philadelphia, Pa. She married the merchant Ross and aided him in the upholstery business, gaining wide recognition for her attractive materials and skillful shapes. Washington, Franklin and Adams were among the Ross' customers, so when the Continental Congress of 1777 resolved that a flag symbolizing the thirteen colonies be made, Betsy's friends at court had her commissioned for the work.

Another New Year!

There's a lift of the spirit, a warming of the heart!
There's laughter and youth ... sixty joins hands with twenty, and on this day the old grow young and youth throws off the grasp of time.

On this happy occasion we wish for you the very best that life affords!

ALL HAIL TO THE NEW YEAR

"Ring out the old, ring in the new,
Ring, happy bells, across the snow;
The year is going, let him go; Ring out the false, ring in the true."

—Alfred Tennyson

As the glad bells peal out at the stroke of midnight to mark the passing of the old year and the arrival of the new, we pause for a moment to express our appreciation for the confidence, friendship and good will which have been extended to us during the past year and to extend our best wishes for a bright and happy New Year.

Welcome — 1948!
