DORIS DAY'S story sounds like Cinderella's—in one year, 1947, she signed a motion picture contract with Michael Curtiz productions, closed a deal to appear with Sinatra on the Hit Parade, and signed a nice record-making pact. But she had worked toward those successes for six years. A broken leg had kept her in a cast for 14 months; she figured that her career as a dancer was ended, and became a singer. But she says her biggest moment was the one when Curtiz asked her to test for the lead in his Technicolor musical, "Romance in High C." "Forever and Always," her second musical, will be followed by "The '49ers."

Thomas Gomez, whose performance as Robert Montgomery's Mexican friend in "Ride the Pink Horse" has been boosted for "supporting" Oscar recognition, has been added to the impressive cast of "Key Largo," which so far includes Humphrey Bogart, Edward G. Robinson, Lauren Bacall, Lionel Barrymore, Claire Trevor and Dan Seymour. John Huston adapted the Maxwell Anderson play.

Florence Marly, European screen star now making her first American picture, "Sealed Verdict," at Paramount, is going to be a dreadful disappointment to autograph seekers. She has starred in French, Czech and Spanish films, and now of course, in English. But—though she can speak it, she can't write it. So there will be no comments with her autograph.

Merle Oberon and Lucien Ballard, her husband, are looking for a script laid in the region of Lake Tanganyika; they like the African scenery. Meanwhile E. Claude Mills has formed a company to produce "Tanga Neeka," in conjunction with the Gatti-Hallcrafters expedition. The Hallcrafters company will work closely with the crew, and will broadcast eight hours daily by short wave radio to amateur operators all over the world, from the picture location. United Artists will release "Tanga Neeka."

LeRoy Prinz, the husky little man who creates and stages all those terpsichorean spectacles for Warner Bros. pictures, doesn't fit the popular conception of a dancing master. He was shot down 14 times while flying with the Lafayette Escadrille.

Welfare worker Carmen Holliday was hired to take care of Loretta Young's movie daughter on the set during the filming of "The Bishop's Wife." Her Hollywood career began on a movie set, taking care of Loretta Young, aged five.

Dorothy Malone received her most important role so far in Warner Bros. "One Sunday Afternoon," the musical version of the old play. Dennis Morgan and Janis Paige costar, and Raoul Walsh will direct.

The Perry Como Fan club is now an international institution. Has branches in England, Canada, Australia and Scotland. Each branch is publishing its own newspaper, which contains news and photos of Como.

Percy Faith, who resigned as conductor of the Contented program after eight years, following the announcement that it was shifting to the west coast, has signed an exclusive four-year contract with the sponsors of his CBS Sunday show.

Richard Wallace rounds out his 20th year as a Hollywood director with RKO's "Tycoon," starring Laraine Day and John Wayne. He began in the nickelodeon days; served as cutter for Mack Sennett, then directed "McFadden's Flats."

ODDS AND ENDS—The pretty little girl who appears with Dennis Morgan in the "Kerry Lee" number of "My Wild Irish Rose" is his daughter Kirsten, aged 9. . . . Danny Kaye flies to London late this month for a four-week engagement at the Palladium, since English fans can't see "The Secret Life of Walter Mitty." "The Kid From Brooklyn" is his latest appearance there. . . . CBS may pop up with a Shirley Booth program before spring; Shirley will not play a "Miss Duffy" role, but something different. . . . "Point Sublime," with Cliff Arquette and Mel Blanc, goes coast-to-coast on ABC February 2nd.

HOUSEHOLD MEMOS... by Lynn Chambers

Mostly Vegetables

What's the best way to save on meat? Serve smaller amounts and round the meal out with several vegetables.

When you come to consult figures on meat consumption you will realize that a great many of us actually overdo the eating on meat and take it easy on the vegetables. Now that the former is high in price and will be come more scarce, if reports are true, plan to include more vegetables in your meals.

Here are some very satisfying main dishes which you will be wise to use. There's enough meat to satisfy the hungry and those with a taste for it, but there are also dishes which are budget-wise.

*Vegetable Pie.

- 3 tablespoons butter
- 5 tablespoons flour
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 teaspoon celery salt
- 1/2 teaspoon paprika
- 3 cups milk
- 16 small white onions
- 1 cup cooked peas
- 1 cup cooked string beans or lima beans
- 3 cups cooked carrots
- 2 cups chopped leftover roast or meat loaf

Melt butter, add flour and stir until well blended. Add seasonings and then milk, stirring constantly until smooth and thick. Bring to a boil and cook for 2 minutes. Add vegetables and meat. Pour into a large baking dish; cover with the following:

- *Peanut Butter Crust.
- 1 1/2 cups flour
- 3 teaspoons baking powder
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 4 tablespoons peanut butter
- 1/2 cup milk
- 4 strips raw bacon fat

Sift together dry ingredients; add peanut butter and mix in thoroughly with a fork. Add milk to make soft dough. Turn out on floured board; toss lightly until the outside looks smooth. Roll out to fit baking dish. Cut slits for steam to escape; place on top of baking dish. Cut bacon in very small pieces over top and bake in a hot oven (425 degrees) about 20 minutes until bacon is crisp and brown.

Here is an interesting, well seasoned dish which is both filling and satisfying in addition to being an excellent way in which to stretch a pound of meat:

Talerni.

(Serves 6)

- 1 green pepper
- 1 pound hamburger
- 2 tablespoons oil
- 1 small can tomatoes
- 1 small onion
- 1 clove garlic
- 1/4 pound dry noodles
- 1 can corn kernels
- 1 can ripe olives
- 1/2 cup olive liquid
- 1/2 cup Longhorn cheese

Fry cut-up pepper and hamburger in oil. When browned, add tomatoes

LYNN SAYS:

Take Proper Care Of Your Equipment

Don't overload your refrigerator and keep it defrosted in cold as well as hot weather. An excess of ice will cut down on the cold you actually have in the refrigerator.

Your sewing machine should be oiled after each day's sewing, or after 8 to 10 hours of stitching.

The most practical way in which to defrost quickly is to have the current turned off; empty the ice trays and fill with warm water.

and remaining ingredients. Bring to a boil, then turn down heat and cook from 45 to 60 minutes.

Vegetable Loaf.

(Serves 6)

- 1/2 cup cooked peas
- 1/2 cup cooked string beans
- 1/2 cup chopped carrots
- 1 1/2 cups milk
- 1 egg
- 1 cup soft bread crumbs
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 teaspoon pepper
- 1/2 teaspoon paprika

Press peas through a sieve, cut beans into small pieces, and combine all vegetables. Add milk, slightly beaten egg, crumbs and seasonings. Turn into a greased baking dish and bake in a moderate (350 degree) oven until firm. Serve with 2 1/2 cups medium white sauce to which has been added 4 tablespoons of deviled ham. Blend thoroughly.

There are innumerable ways in which that good protein food, cheese, can stretch vegetables while substituting for meat. Here are several taste-tempting ideas.

Macaroni-Stuffed Peppers.

(Serves 6)

- 6 green peppers
- 1 cup cooked elbow macaroni
- 1/2 pound grated American cheese
- 1 cup cooked tomatoes
- 1 cup soft bread crumbs
- 1/2 teaspoon worcestershire sauce
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- Dash of pepper

Cut a slice off the top of each pepper and cook in boiling salted water for 5 minutes. Drain and remove seeds.

Mix remaining ingredients, saving 1/2 of cheese for top. Fill peppers with mixture, stand upright in pan and sprinkle with remaining cheese. Bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees) for 30 minutes.

Broccoli With Cheese.

(Serves 6)

- 1 onion, minced
- 6 tablespoons butter
- 4 tablespoons flour
- 2 cups milk
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1 egg yolk
- 1 cup grated parmesan cheese
- 2 1/2 pounds cooked broccoli
- 1 cup dry bread crumbs

Cook onion in 4 tablespoons of butter until tender, stir in flour and add milk gradually, stirring constantly. Add seasoning, egg yolk and cheese. Pour half of sauce into baking dish, arrange broccoli on top of sauce and cover with remaining sauce. Sprinkle with bread crumbs and dot with remaining butter. Bake in a hot (400 degree) oven about 20 minutes.

AID TO SPREADS

A little citrus juice mixed into many sandwich spreads not only improves the flavor but also thins the mixture for easier spreading. Try a dash of orange juice in cheese spreads, ham or peanut butter.

Any equipment which has an electrical element should never be immersed in water. This includes roasters, coffee pots, mixers, toasters, waffle irons, griddles, et cetera. The motor may be wiped with a damp cloth, but carefully so as not to get it too wet. Always have the equipment disconnected.

Vacuum cleaners should be emptied after every use. Remove threads and lint which have gathered in brush by clipping with shears and pulling them out. Keep the cord from becoming twisted.

AROUND THE HOUSE

Slip a cotton bag over the broom head and you have a handy tool for sweeping down walls and ceilings. When the bag becomes soiled, simply soak in hot soapy water and wash in the regular way.

A file that is clogged with metal particles should be bumped lightly on a block in order to dislodge the filings that clutter up the teeth.

To avoid shine on woollens, use a dry or steam iron over a pressing cloth and apply a pressing action rather than an ironing motion.

When a baking recipe calls for beaten egg whites, separate the yolks and whites while the eggs are cold. Let the whites reach room temperature before beating. The volume will be greater.

To prevent desk or bureau drawers from sticking rub a little yellow soap or paraffin along the edges.

Larger windows are just as practicable in cold climates as in the South, especially since the invention of the insulating window, which is nothing more than two pieces of plate glass with an air space between them. In fending cold they are nearly as useful as the wall of the house.

Simple as That

A new switchman was instructed by the yardmaster to go to the back shop and mark all the cars that had been repaired so they could be forwarded East. Cars that had not been repaired were to be switched out and returned to the shop.

About an hour later, when the hump crew prepared to switch out the cars that had been repaired, the yardmaster noticed that all the cars had been freshly chalked "DG."

"How can I tell the 'okay' cars from the 'bad orders'?" the yardmaster stormed, "and what in blazes does 'DG' mean?"

"Why, that's simple," the switchman replied, "it means 'Do Go' and 'Don't Go.'"

Bronze articles can be cleaned beautifully by immersing a cloth in a solution of vinegar and salt and rubbing vigorously.

When the alarm of the alarm clock seems to be weakening, perhaps all it needs is a few drops of machine oil.
