It is our privilege to have with us Sunday morning, April 25, James N. Reb and family, missionaries to Alaska. God has used Bro. and Sister Reb to establish a church in Anchorage, Alaska, and one in Aniak. They will leave soon to build a church in the needy town of Cordova. It will be a pleasure to hear them tell of their experiences among the Eskimos of the far north. They will also display the furs worn on their missionary trips to lonely cabins by the way of icy trails. All are welcome.

Sunday School attendance was 122 last Sunday. Rev. Collins, pastor of the Wonder Chapel, occupied the pulpit and Rev. Gray preached at the Wonder Chapel. Rev. Collins message was from Gen. 26-22, subject being "Wells." He said in part, there were three kinds of wells, productive, caved in and re-dug, comparing these with Christian lives.

Rev. and Mrs. Collins sang "Make Me Clean" and "His Love Is Wonderful." Mrs. Collins was accordion accompanist. The Girls Junior choir sang "Blessed Assurance."

A community sing at the Clarence Martin home on South Redwood highway Saturday night and it is requested that you bring any instruments you can play.

Town Circle meets next Wednesday, April 28 at one o'clock.
