Rural Route Patrons should Number Boxes

Just for the sake of argument—suppose a new and inexperienced rural route mail carrier had to make the route out of the Cave Junction office. Half of the mail would not be distributed, because the new carrier would not know who lives where and how.

It is necessary, for better community service, that the new mail boxes be numbered, and thereby make the work easy for the rural carrier, whoever it may be.

Rural Carrier Nat Wolley has been on sick leave for some time, but is back on the job again and all his friends hope for speedy recovery.

AN INDEPENDENCE DAY MESSAGE TO OUR PATRONS

This is an important day for each of us. Although we set it aside as a day of fun and summer - holiday enjoyment, let's not lose sight of the fact that "world affairs" make it a solemn occasion on which we must rededicate ourselves to living democratically.

Pampered Farmers

If the folks in our town were less tolerant, they'd be really burned up over that nationally circulated article on "pampered farmers," describing them as living off the fat of the land.

ploughing or harvesting, depending on the season, until sundown. In the evening he finally relaxes with the missus over a moderate glass of beer.

And the farmer today's not only temperate in his habits, like Bert's evening glass of beer... but tolerant in his opinions. So he'll probably say of that article, "somebody got the facts wrong," and just let it go at that.

From where I sit the farmer is anything but "pampered." If he's better off today than twenty years ago it's because he's worked hard to improve the quality and quantity of his production.

Take Bert Childers, for example. Bert is up at four in the morning, to get the milking finished—and
